Suspense Woven Into Film Opening At Ohio On Friday

Weaving unusual suspense into its gripping story of a man and a woman trapped by circumstances into a situation of ever-increasing peril, one of the newest pictures "The Woman in the Window" starring Edward G. Robinson and Joan Bennett will open Friday at the Ohio theatre.

In contrast to his usual "killer" role Robinson plays a mild-mannered psychology professor, devoted to his wife and children, who quite innocently get into a spot where in self-defense he is forced to stab a half-crazed attacker. The drama of the story carries on from this point to reach exceptional peaks of tension before the surprise climax is arrived at. In order that you may enjoy the full suspense of the movie, no one will be seated in the theatre during the last five minutes of the film.

You've all been waiting for it's now at the Lima reached Lana Turner, Van Heflin, Gloria Grahame in Broadway Boulevard, a great picture that you don't want to miss. It's now showing at the Quilna theatre as "Leave It to Blondie" with Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake and Larry Simms, and "Shadows in the Night" with Warner Baxter playing the role of Dr. Ordway, the "Crime Doctor."

Yes, the pictures are still here but they won't be for long. The pictures "This Man's Navy" with Wallace Beery, Tom Drake and Jan Clayton and "Mademoiselle Fifi" now showing at the Sigma theatre will close their engagement here Friday. Coming in to replace these two films which were held over for a few extra days by popular request will be "Murder, My Sweet" and "Nothing but Trouble," beginning Saturday.

In one of the greatest roles of his career Charles Laughton presents a superb performance in the picture "The Suspect" currently playing at the State theatre. Ella Raines and Dean Harens co-star with him. Sharing the billing is the film "Hi' Beautiful."

Taut with suspense the picture "Ghost Guns" starring Johnny Mack Brown is keeping film lovers on the edge of their seats at the Lyric theatre. The name alone is enough to assure something extraordinary in the line of movies.

New artificial plastic eyes designed and manufactured by three American Army dental officers are now being produced for wounded veteran and soldier invalids with glass eyes. The plastic eyes hold advantages over glass eyes in that they can be made to very closely resemble human eyes allow a more natural freedom of movement and are practically indestructible whereas glass eyes are easily broken.

Richard De Rochemont To Appear On Town Meeting

Richard de Rochemont, national president of France Forever and producer of the motion picture series, "The March of Time," and Lewis Gannett, author and newspaperman just returned from France, round out the roster of speakers for "America's Town Meeting's" discussion of the puzzling question, "Can France Regain Her Place as a World Power?" Thursday at 7:30 p. m., over Station WJZ. De Rochemont joins Leon Henderson, former director of the OPA who recently visited France, in maintaining that France will rise again. Gannett and Louis Fischer, author of the recent book, "Empire," argue that France will remain a second-rate power. George V. Denny, Jr., moderates.

"Love's Lovely Counterfeit," James M. Cain's thrilling story of murder, politics and racketeers, is heard on "Suspense" with Humphrey Bogart in the starring role, on Thursday, at 7 p. m., over Station WABC. Bogart is cast in the role of an ex-convict who comes under the influence of a political racketeer and lives to regret it when the gangster stands in the way of his rehabilitation. The former prisoner narrowly escapes being murdered before the story comes to a thrilling finish. The show is produced by William Spier.

Aldo Solito de Solia, noted Spanish concert pianist and composer, will guest with Bing Crosby on the Music hall program next Thursday, at 8 p. m. over WEAF. Eugenie Baird is "The Groaner's" singing partner on the half-hour show.
