Marcus Togstad and Al Lewison have got an article on the waged a close battle for honors in old Company F basketball the Industrial League at New-

I'll have pictures of them in there and everything. People around Portage, Baraboo, Lodi, Pardeeville, Wyocena and all around there they remember this outfit. Boy, this will be a treat to have a look at the old boys. You better get a paper in a hurry there ain't too many

I am scaring the boys on my bets anyhow about the war. I bet them about three months ago the Allies would be in Berlin by March 17th. They said I was March 17th. They said I was plum nuts they wouldn't be in there until July,

They gave me good odds, man alive. So if the Allied soldiers get into Berlin or any

Then I said they would either be in there or Germany would sur-render by that time too. They said I talked nuts I should have my head examined. Maybe they are right but I got them moving around in their seats though. One guy bet me 30-5 that is a pretty fair bet if I lose.

The State Basketball Tournament starts next week that is a good thing for Madison. There ain't nothing better I don't think.

I had quite a talk with Bob Feller the other evening in Mil-waukee. I don't catch him but he

Chei Vesovich, Minneapolis bowler, missed the 5-pin in trying for a spare. His ball bounced back from the cushionneed sack from the cushion, hit the bottom of the rack, landed on the alley and knocked the pin over. It then continued up the alley and into the gutter at the foul line. He calls it his "retriever shot."
