I strolled around a little and I ran into Oscar Rennebohm in his office. I knocked on the door and he said step in citizen. I stepped in and sat down and had quite a talk with him. He gets a lot of mail there and he has got to do a lot of answering letters. He is studying that state setup all the time. He came up the hard way they sin't going to get no edge on him when they start talking finances they'll have to give the answers.

The other night the State Journal team bowled the Winnebago Auto Replacement Company team. It was a special match we had all kinds of fun. How is everything around the old home town? According to the two months old papers I get, being a civilian leaves a lot to be desired too. I am still out here in the Central Pacific area, and still wishing the war was over so wi could all come home and things could get back to normal. Every time they throw some of those C rations at us, I think of the good old days when we used to stuff ourselves every Thursday noon.

In general, however, this place is not bad now that we have it cleaned up and organized a bit. The weather is only too hot during the middle of the day and there is usually a nice breeze blowing. Almost all of the nights are cool, and since we live in tents we get the full benefit of it Also, we have had showers for some time and can dash down and cool off any time we are not on duty.
