

War Films Scarce As Battle Nears Climax

Single Picture On Fight Now Showing Here

With the war reaching the much-touted for climax, the tendency for the production of war movies seems to be lessening. The calendar for the movies this Sunday shows only one war picture booked for showing. We're slowly but surely moving back on a peacetime film track.

People have been told so many things since this war began that they are a little wary of some of the things being said today. There is one movie which does have some basis and presents quite a few facts, that is "Hotel Berlin" currently showing at the Ohio theatre.

Limitations are privileged to see the picture "Hangover Square" now at the Quilna theatre for it is the last picture that movie-star Laird Cregar made before his death. The picture tells of a woman whose mind became warped, turning her into a murderer. Sharing the billing is "Down Argentine Way" with Betty Grable.

"Keep Your Powder Dry" is the hit at the Sigma theatre boasts one of the season's top casts in one of the year's finest film offerings. It stars Lana Turner, Lorraine Day and Susan Peters, and is checkful of laughs and tears.

There are probably a few who can remember when the World Fair was held in St. Louis. If you do, you'll recall that there was a good deal of excitement in the homes of those who were going to attend the fair. "That same excitement is shown in the picture "Meet Me In St. Louis" at the State theatre. The film stars Judy Garland, Margaret O'Brien, Tom Drake, Leon Ames and Mary Astor.

When a girl becomes so overcome by western life that she decides to marry a cowboy, then something is drastically wrong. But you won't go wrong in seeing the picture "Dudes Are Pretty People" opening Sunday at the Lyric theatre. There's fun galore while the unusual happens.

GRABLE STARS—Lovely Betty Grable plays the starring role in "Down Argentine Way" currently showing at the Quilna theatre. Sharing the billing is "Hangover Square" with Laird Cregar, Linda Darnell and George Sanders.

SCENE IN LYRIC FILM—Coaxing recalcitrant Walter Catlett in this scene from the new film, "Dudes Are Pretty People" now at the Lyric theatre, are Songstress Gloria Jean (L) and pretty Marjorie Weaver.
