

Listener's Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

9:45 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Donald P. Bean, director of the "Build for Peace" program.

1:30 p. m.—WIND—Baseball: Cuba vs. St. Louis.

3:15—WJJD—Baseball: Sox vs. Cleveland Indians.

7:30—WMAQ—Herbert Hoover discusses "The San Francisco Conference and Peace."

8:00—WENR—Bretton Woods program, with Secretary Morgenthau, Edward G. Robinson, Ollefa De Havilland, Charles Blekford, and others.

9:00—W-G-N, WGNB, WMAQ, WBBM, WENR—President Truman gives a talk which is to be shortwaved to American troops overseas.

9:30—WBBM—Congress Speaks: Rep. Merrow (R., N. H.) discusses changes in senatorial ratification of United States treaties.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

2:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Ida Bailey Allen's program for homemakers.

7:00—WMAQ—Ginny Stimms, with Edgar (Cookie) Patchell.

7:30—W-G-N—Roy Rogers Show. Guest: Stuart Erwin.

7:30—WBBM—Theater of Romance, with Ralph Bellamy in "Penny Serenade."

8:00—WMAQ—Mystery Theater presents "The Perfect Crime."

8:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly celebrate their 10th anniversary on the air as a comedy couple.

8:30—WBBM—This Is My Best, with Orson Welles and Rita Hayworth in "Don't Catch Me."

9:05—WMAQ—Bob Hope, with Brenda and Cobina as guests.

9:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Flamond: "The Case of the Light Brunette."

9:30—WMAQ—Hildegard, Guest: Lou Holtz.

10:30—WMAQ—Dick Haymes, Guest: Monty Woolley.

MUSIC

Noon—WAAF—Symphonic hour: Brahms' Double Concerto in A minor.

4:00 p. m.—WCFL—Music Lovers' Matinee: "Prelude to Wagner's 'Lohengrin.'"

8:30—W-G-N—Symphony Hall: Henry Weber directs W-G-N Symphony orchestra in Rachmaninoff's Symphony No. 2 in E minor and "Passacaglia" by Handel-Harty.

8:30—WENR—Spotlight Bands: Frankie Masters' orchestra.

10:05—WIND—Symphonic hour: Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

10:30—WCFL—Music Lovers' hour: Beethoven's "Eroica" Symphony.