

"God Is My Co-Pilot" Tells Saga Of Famed Flying Tigers

Out of the red sky above China, out of the clouds that inevitably shelter a waiting enemy plane, comes the roaring story of Col. Robert Lee Scott Jr. and his Flying Tigers. "God Is My Co-Pilot" opening Friday at the Ohio the star, Dennis Morgan and featuring Dane Clark, Raymond Massey, Andrea King and Alan Hale, is the saga of those men and of their inimitable exploits.

"Molly and Me," the new picture, hit opening Friday at the Ohio theatre is just what the doctor ordered—a wonderful thing to do for your family and yourself. It is a story of the life of a young man who is a pilot in the United States Army Air Corps. He is a pilot in the United States Army Air Corps. He is a pilot in the United States Army Air Corps.

Solons To Talk On Dumbarton Oaks Plan At "Town Meeting"

Two United States senators, Lister Hill (D-Ala.) and Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) will be the speakers, when "America's Town Meeting" discusses the question, "Are the Rights of the Small Nations Protected Under Dumbarton Oaks?" in a broadcast from Birmingham, Thursday at 7:30 p. m., over Station WJZ. The question is particularly timely, as the United Nations conference at San Francisco will be less than a week off when the debate takes place. Senator Hill believes that the Dumbarton Oaks agreement affords the small nations adequate protection, while Senator Ferguson takes the opposite viewpoint. George V. Denney, Jr., is moderator of the forum.

Field wire, which carries the communications essential to an army's success in battle, is the subject, when the Army Service Forces airs its "Weapons for Victory," Thursday, at 4 p. m., over Station WABC. How the wire is made and how it services the army in action will be told in dramatic form.

Like the man who came to dinner, guest star Groucho Marx stays over for another week to listen to the satiric singing of lovely hostess Dinah on "Dinah Shore's Open House" Thursday, at 7:30 p. m. over WEAP.

A tale of stolen pearls and breath-taking danger co-stars William Bendix and Allyn Joslyn, two of Hollywood's top comedy-drama notables, in the "Suspense" offering on Thursday, at 7 p. m., over Station WABC. The story concerns the mysterious disappearance of a wealthy woman's necklace. Her former chauffeur is suspected by a private detective, but they both become close friends and the trail leads to a perilous and surprising climax.
