"The Merry Monahans" To Open Thursday At State

"The Merry Monahans," one of the biggest productions of the season will open Thursday at the State theatre and it all adds up to screen entertainment at its very best.

Ryan, Jack Oakie and Ann Blyth, mounted against a background of vaudeville in its halcyon days. The supporting lineup of topflight per formers includes Rosemary de Camp, Isabel Jewell, John Miljan and Gavin Muir.

The heroic airmen who fought against the Japs before the United States declared war officially against the Island of Nippon are brought to the screen in the picture "God Is My Co-Pilot" currently showing at the Ohio theatre and starring Dennis Morgan, Raymond Massey, Andrea King and Alan

Co-starring Michael O'Shea and Lloyd Nolan, teamed for the first time on the screen, "Circumstantial Evidence," the two-fisted story of a tough guy, continues on its way to screen glory at the Quilna theatre. Blazing with thrills and packed with suspense, the new hit also feature Trude Marshall, Billy Commings and Ruth Ford in its outstanding cast.

Convincing in his portrayal of the title role is Paul Andor, former star of German films. He succeeds in making himself a thoroly hateful person as the selfish, egotistical, club-footed Goebbels. Preston Foster finds himself mixed up in a murder but seems to like it in the picture "Bermuda Mystery" opening Thursday at the Lyric theatre. Sharing the billing is "Song of the Range." Recent discoveries in Mexico indicate that man inhabited this continent as much as 25,000 years ago.

The film projects the considerable talents of Donald O'Connor, Peggy
