Roundy: Can we see you here in Sauk City Sunday where our baseball before he sails for home, and his first outdoor run. In most of his indoor competition the thin blond want here on the Sauk City team to beat Joe Hyland's pets.

Sincerely. Jane Adams.

I would love to be there Jane but I can't make it. But you girls will see me this summer. If you want to lay a chicken dinner on the table that is alright too I like it fried or stewed. Now don't give me the feathers I want chicken.

I ran into Red Elliott I haven't seen him in quite awhile he was quite a pitcher at Oregon years back he didn't lose many games.

You don't see these signs hanging out much more "For Rent." Remember when you could see them plastered up all over the city. When the war ends you'll see some of them go up they will be in big black print too.

I was at the major league bowling banquet the other night they had two toastmasters Dolf Friede and Moon Molinaro. They talked so long the guests didn't get a chance to speak until next season.

He's Sick and Club Is Losing

By LEO H. PETERSEN (United Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK---(U,P)---These are trying days for Frankle Frisch. His Pittsburgh Pirates and his arthritis must be driving him al-most as daffy as the Gas House Gang did in the old days.

For his Pirates, tagged as one of the teams to beat in the 1945 pennant race, can't get going. They've won only two of eight games so far and are down in the National league cellar with the Philadelphia Phillies. That's no way for a team eyeing a championship to be playing ball, and it hardly is the way to treat a man who already has had treat a man who already has had enough trouble this spring. Arth-ritis kept him confined to his New Rochelle, N. Y., home when the Pirates went through their spring training drills. He's Been in Tougher Spots is one thing in the world Frisch hates, it's losing ball games. There's the matter of Pitts-burgh fans to be considered, too. Frankie has been popular there, but the happenings of last Sunday but the happenings of last Sunday but the happenings of last Sunday from incate a change in their attitude. When his team was dropping the second game of a double-header to the Chicago Cubs after having lost the first shurgh. Pirate dugout. It's been a long time since a demonstration like that has been seen around Pitts-burgh. But Frisch is too tough to let a little thing like that get him down. His only record of failure a double heaver in tougher spots, and they never have gotten him down. His only record of failure pires, but Frisch still is in there pires, but Frisch still is in there trying on that score, although no manager ever has won out in that corticular and eavor. WIBA SUNDAY

This banquet they had Thurs-day night was the first one they ever had of its kind. I think that is a great movement towards the betterment of everything. That is going to do bowling a lot of good. You can thrash everything out and everybody gets better acquainted and finds out a lot of things.

I got a three dollar check from the Elks for bowling for the hardest luck in the Sweeper. I left the seven and ten pin up sixteen times.

John Pertzborn started off with a 250 game and he had two bad games they had a lot of trouble keeping him from jumping out the second story window.

Lucky Bill O'Donnell he was getting the wood the boys call him Lucky they say he can touch a three leaf clover and it will turn to four leaves.

You should have seen Romey Esser in the city tournament was he ever moaning he didn't get enough pins to put in the paper. You should have seen him and Jack Hebl crying on each others shoulder. It looked like a wake,
