Romance and mystery are skillfully blended in the new thilling film, "Experiment Perilous" opening Thursday at the State theatre. The story which stars Hedy Laman, George Brent and Paul Lukas, concerns the plight of a beautiful girl married to a wealthy philanthropist who, in reality is a psychopathic killer. He seeks to destroy her and their little son by the power of suggestion, and includes in his plans a doctor who is in love with,

The longest, hardest, most dangerous race of them all-and a girl wing it on an unwanted horse! That's the thrilling climax of a picture, "National Velvet" currently showing at the Ohio theatre. The film is based on the bestseller novel of the same title and stars Mickey Rooney, with Elizabeth Taylor and Jackie Jenkins.

Beginning a little ahead of schedule, the pictures "Forever " and "Docks of New York" open Wednesday at the Quilna theatre Both pictures are from the upper brackers of movie production and require the greatest part of your attention

Plenty of laughs can be found in the riotous comedy "What a Blonde" with Leon Eirol, famous rubber-legged comedian at the Sigma theatre Errol's part is that of F Fairington Fowler, wealthy, henpecked manufacturer whose wife leaves him, using the last drop of gasoline to get to the station. In older to get mole gas, he gets some people to share the ride, and oh, the people he rets'

The intensely dramatic story of a small group of people who fight the conquering Nazis in Belgium without the aid of guns or bombs, "Uncensored" opens Thursday at the Lyric theatre.
