Uncle Ray's Corner INDIAN TRIBES HAD DIFFERENT CUSTOMS IN BURIAL OF DEAD

Arrested in Spain, Laval Will Face Trial by Allies MADRID —(U.P)— A tired and dejected Pierre Laval waited in a Spanish jail today to be turned over to the United Nations for trial as a war criminal. His only alternative was the grim one of returning to France, where he has been sentenced sentia for treason.

The former vichy chief of government gave up the fight Wednesday after his futile flight for freedom ended on a Barce-lona airfield. lona airfield. The Spanish LAVAL government told him to get out of the country, or to remain and be handed over to the United Na-tions.

Spanish officials told Laval he would be arrested if he did not leave Spain immediately. His party went into the airfield restaurant. There they sat for three hours, making up their minds. Outside their plane was refueled. Laval, looking very tired, walked out and said he would stay and take his medicine. There

It was the bone of a human being! Digging deeper, the men turned up scores of other bones. My father supposed the skeletons of Indians had been found, and he was right. The bones were taken to a university expert, who studied them and then stated that they belonged to three or four Indians (For INDIAN or GENERAL INlonged to three or four Indians buried many years before.

looking at the bones with interest, but I did not care to touch them. Indians of times past had many different customs of taking care of their dead. Often a mound was raised over the dead, and various
