Pleasures Abound

To celebrate all the good war news which Limeites have been receiving the last few days, the movies this Saturday fill the bill. Surpassing anything so far in technicolor pictures is the film "It's a Pleasure" with Sonja Henie and Michael O'Shea and currently showing at the Ohlo theatre. A galaxy of ice extravaganzas have been put on telluloid with the famous skating star heading all performances. Sonia Henie also does a dance routine which is equally beautiful,

At the Quilna theatre the pictures "Forever Yours" and "Docks of New York" are still playing. Both films are above average and present entertainment for all the family to enjoy.

Mystery prevails at the Sigma theatre where the movie, "The Unseen" is playing its opening performance. The picture stars Gail Russell, Joel McCrea and Herbert! Marshall with a fine supporting

'The FBI In Peace And War' Program Airs Slackers

How the G-men have combatted the clever ruses of slackers, who have tried to violate the Selective Service act, is told on the latest of "The FBI in Peace and War" dramatiations, "The War of the White Feathers," on Saturday at 8:30 p. m., over Station WJZ. The story, based on a chapter from Frederick L. Collins' popular book, "The FBI in Peace and War," gives the inside details on how the FBI has waged a patient but unremitting battle against draft dodgers without the morale-destroying hysteria of World War I. Listeners are sure to enjoy whatever consequences occur when Ralph Edwards plays host to the Andrews Sisters on his "Truth or Consequences' show, Saturday, at 9 p. m., over Station WEAF, The melody trio are all set to welcome the master-of-shenanigans when he returns the favor by visiting their Blue network program the following day, Sunday,
