The Germany affair is all over. Few shots here and there but what they got left will be cleaned up and in hurry and how.

The Germans in arms now and who still will fight on are just plain nertz and must gone insane. Its the only answer to any of them at present who want to fight on.

I made great guess on this war with Germany. I said that the Allies would be in Berlin on March the 17th and that Germany would surrender soon after. I should get sa-

NEW YORK —(U.P.)— "Dixie" Walker, batting king of the major leagues, took a lusty cut at the speeding white ball. His 37-ounce club met the pellet with a crisp crack that could be heard all over Ebbets Field. As the ball wall for a three-run homer, more than 28,000 wild-eyed Brooklyn fans exploded a joyous roar that rocked the stands.

There was double - barrelled cause for joy in this eighth-inning blow. It put the Dodgers ahead of the New York Giants, 4-3, turning threatened defeat into victory; and it proved to the worried worshipers of Walker that their champ wasn't "through."

Long, lean "Dixie"—most popular Brooklyn outfielder since the days of Zach Wheat—entered last Sunday's game with the dwarfish batting average of .152. This .152. This .152.
