Atlantic City Glorified In Song Hit Showing At Lyric

Atlantic City, recognized for more than two decades as America's gayest playgrounds, is glorifled in song and story at the Lyric 'heatre in "Atlantic City" which has as its stars, Constance Moore

The original story by Arthur Caesar is a plausible narrative in which music and backstage galety blend naturally. No one at any time bursts into song just because a tune seems to be the thing for the musical. When they sing, or play, there is a reason and with all the comedy there is a lot of

The little-known world of the ice troupers, as show business calls professional skaters, forms the absorbing background of Sonja Henie's now technicolor film. "It's a Pleasure," now playing at the Ohio theatre. The Norwegian flash is cast as an obscure little exhibition skater who soars to fame and fortune.

Playing next to its last performance at the Quilna theatre is Forever Yours," a picture which stands out among the films produced as one of the best of the season. It's story has the poignant touch which directors dream about putting into their movies. Sharing the billings is "Docks of New York."

Playing an entirely different type role, Nancy Kelly appears in Song of the Sarong" currently playing at the Sigma theatre. The Main feature of the bill is "The Unseen" which stars Gail Russell, Herbert Marshali and Joel Mc-

Noted for her outstanding portrayal of character parts, Rosalind Russell continues in this line in the movie "Roughly Speaking," now showing at the State theatre. Sharing the billing is "Her Lucky Night."

No Mercy For His Sons If Traitors

WASHINGTON, May 7-(AP) -Philippine President Sergio Osmena said today he had directed that two of his sons, suspected of of such dealings."

At a news conference Osmena denied an earlier report that he had actually ordered the arrest of the two, Nicasio, 35, and Sergio, Jr., 28.

Sorry Again SAN FRANCISCO, May 7 -

(AP) -Tokyo radio today reported directors of the Totalitarian Political-assn of Greater Japan were demanding a special session of the Japanese diet.

This new evidence of dissatisbroadcast is heard at 8:30 p. m. faction with the war situation followed Tokyo newspaper criticism of the policies of Baron Kanto Suzuki, third wartime premier, who only recently took office.

The broadcast, recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, said the party directors had also decided to establish special committees to deal with various production, defense and air raid matters.

Gen, Jiro Minami, president of the party, was quoted in a Domei News Agency dispatch as declaring yesterday that "the only way to victory is to channel the total energies of the nation's 100,000,000 people directly to the battle-
