Cary Grant Starred In Film Coming To Sigma

Starring Cary Grant, and presenting Ethel Barrymore in a return to the screen after 12 years, the picturization of "None But the Lonely Heart," Richard Llewellyn's best seller, opens Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

Cary Grant's role is that of Ernie Mott, a cockney ne'er-do-well, embittered by povelty and the squalid conditions of life. Ethel Barrymore plays his mother, Ma Mott, the hard-working owner of a secondhand shop beneath their mean

Acclaimed as the greatest feminine skater of all time, Sonja Henie won her first championship at the age of 15, and for 10 straight years held the undisputed amateur crown along with three Olympic triumphs before she decided to turn professional and assay a screen career Her 10th picture and her first in technicolor is "It's a Pleasure," currently showing at the Ohio theatre.

They said the queen could do no wrong, but the inside story was not known The intimate life of Catharine the Great, Czarına of Russia, is pictured in the film, "A Royal Scandal" opening Wednesday at the Quilna theatre The leading roles are played by Tallulah Bankhead, Charles Coburn, Anne Baxter and William Eythe. Louise Randall Pierson, the life of whom Rosalind Russell portrays in the film, "Roughly Speaking." currently playing at the State theatre, had no easy time of it as can well be seen in the picture It seemed as tho every time she got things up to the point of making
