

Good Movies Speed Time On Sunday Afternoons

Shows Fill In Slow Spots Of Sabbath

Sunday afternoon—what to do on Sunday afternoon! The answer to this is a good movie, and there are plenty of them at all the local show houses this Sabbath.

Dr. Silkini, the renowned ghost master, promises to perform some of his most famous illusions before turning the Ohio theatre into a den of spooks Monday. All this will be presented in two shows, one beginning at 2 p. m. and the other at 7 p. m. A movie accompanies the show and the name of it is "Zombies On Broadway."

The newest in the brilliant parade of hits has been released and is currently playing at the Quilna theatre. It is "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe" starring Betty Grable and Dick Haymes. Set against the background of one of the world's most famous night spots, the film features a brilliant cast of screen, stage and radio stars.

"Patrick the Great," starring Donald O'Connor and Peggy Ryan is currently showing at the Sigma theatre and is a riot of fun. As all their other pictures have, this film keeps you on the edge of your seat with excitement.

Exposing the secret plans of the Nazis, the picture "Hotel Berlin" opens Sunday at the State theatre. Set against a luxuriant background of the famed Hotel Berlin in the German capital city, the picture reveals the many plots that were made in this fabulous building.

At the Lyric theatre is another of those most-welcome Falcon pictures starring Tom Conway. This time, tho, the "Falcon is in Mexico" and finds himself in plenty of hot water. Sharing the billing is "Heart Of The West."

BETTY IN STARRING ROLE—The grandeur of a great love story and the splendor of a dazzling musical sets the screen aflame with joyous entertainment when "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe," the brilliant technicolor musical starring Betty Grable and Dick Haymes now showing at the Quilna theatre. The enthralling romance of a girl who wanted only to be loved, and a boy who wanted only to sing, the picture is packed with glorious songs, sparkling gaiety, bewitching spectacle and gorgeous girls.

STARS IN ROMANCE—Lovely Janet Blair is currently appearing in the romantic comedy, "The Impatient Years," with Lee Bowman and Charles Coburn opening Monday at the Lyric theatre. Jean plays the wife to whom Bowman returns after having been shipped overseas on the second day of their marriage.

Blonde Janet Blair Will Hold Charlie's Attention

The blonde and beautiful, Janet Blair, will be the girl to hold Charlie McCarthy's attention when she appears as guest on the program to be heard Sunday at 8 p. m. over WEA. The McCarthy show starting Edgar Bergen, Don Ameche, Ray Noble and Joan Merrill, will air from the U. S. Naval Air Technical Command, Norman, Okla. Adm. Emory S. Land, head of the War Shipping Administration, will be among Milo Boulton's wartime guests when the Army's Purple Heart award is presented to a merchant seaman during the "We, the People" broadcast over WABC on Sunday at 10:30 p. m.

A large batch of home made doughnuts serves as circumstantial evidence that Riley is a tyrant to his mother on "The Life of Riley" comedy-drama, starring William Bendix, on Sunday at 10 p. m., over Station WJZ. All the trouble starts when Riley's mother, who is visiting him, bakes the doughnuts for the family. There are so many left over that Riley's son decides to sell the surplus to friends and neighbors, and a rumor circulates that Riley is forcing his aged mother to turn baker and work for her room and board. Riley is ostracized by his friends, and his attempts to straighten matters out only gets him into worse trouble. It all leads to a typical "Life of Riley" surprise ending.

In the spring, regardless of what turn a young man's fancies take, a young wife's fancies turn to gardening, and the Bumstead household is no exception, when "Blondie Plants Her Garden," in the broadcast Sunday at 8 p. m. over Station WABC. Both Dagwood and his boss, Dithers, acquire muscle aches in the process of spading up the back yard.

BRAVES OPTION WALKEN

BOSTON, May 19—(UP)—The Boston Braves have optioned infielder Norman Walken to the Indianapolis Indians of the American Association, it was revealed today. Walken, who has been out of action with injuries and influenza, joined the Braves last month shortly before the start of the major league season.

The fly-amanita mushroom derives its name from the fact that a poison for fly paper was made from its tissues.

Nitelife Footnotes

WOMEN'S GUILD—The long mahogany here cheerfully accommodates a goodly percentage of Lima's best elbows nitely. "Shorty" is boss-man.

IMPERIAL CAFE—Harry Minton's popular emporium rates high in the service department.

NEWYORKER RESTAURANT—Even meatless Tuesday has no effect on the excellence of the "Chicken in the Basket."

COURT CAFE—Debonair Dick holds court with bellif Ray Johns at the ready with drinks that froth and stimulate. Good food.

WINE BAR—Beer to carry out or drink on the premises is the main stock in trade here. "Blackie" is in charge.

WALDO BATHING—Dancing goes on to juke-box accompaniment as a sitty feature of the downtown subterranean rendezvous.

ALPHA NITE CLUB—Pioneer Bill Reese is the capable manager of this N. Jackson-st. establishment. Dancing six nights of the week.

ALPHA VILLAGE—Way out west where the melodies are rhythmic and the dance participants enthusiastic.

ADAMS CAFE—Where South Lima folk gather in pleasant and congenial company. The bar is well-stocked.

WALDO GRILL—Appetizing foods and suitable appetizers are the big attractions here.

WILKINS OWL CLUB—Warm breezes and the recent addition to the A-garden's rations, make the road to Reno's well-traveled.

A & A CAFE—Where the churning juke-box gives out with continuous orchestration and the fun hits a high pitch, come midnight.

BOXY BAR—Downtown rendezvous for the weary war worker, who can relax in the friendly hubbub that characterizes this popular spot.

RAINBOW ROOM—Colorful focal point for Lima's nitelife, combining dancing and drinking in a reserved sort of way.

LOU'S NITE CLUB—The slogan here is "Jamous for friendliness" and the management lives up to it. The draft beer is good.

ON OHIO SCREEN—Margaret O'Brien is starred in a story of a little girl's lasting faith, "Music for Millions," with Jose Iturbi, Jimmy Durante and June Allyson currently featured at the Ohio theatre.

MAN CONVICTED

CLEVELAND, May 19—(AP)—A jury yesterday found John Lutenhouse, Jr., 25, guilty of the manslaughter in the shooting of Charles Williams, 50-year-old bartender. Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick deferred sentence and referred the case to the probation department.
