

Jean Arthur-Lee Bowman In Lead Roles In Lyric Feature

What's going to happen when Johnny comes marching home is answered in the film "The Impatient Years," opening Monday at the Lyric theatre and starring Lee Bowman, Jean Arthur and Charles Coburn.

Margaret O'Brien, seven-year-old wonder actress of the screen is a box-office bonanza. Add brilliant symphonic music conducted by Jose Iturbi, sure-fire laughs provoked by such tried comics as Jimmy Durante, Marie Wilson and Hugh Herbert, drama from June Allyson and Marsha Hunt in a tender story of faith and poignant love, and there is the jackpot formula for "Music For Millions," now at the Ohio theatre.

If you like color, then you'll like everything that goes on in "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe," currently showing at the Quilna theatre and starring Betty Grable and Dick Haymes. For everything from the costumes to the music is colorful.

No doubt you have seen many pictures, which have starred Donald O'Connor and Peggy Ryan and have never tired of them and for your information, the film, "Patrick the Great," now at the Sigma theatre, is another to add to that long list. This is one of their latest and you won't want to miss it.

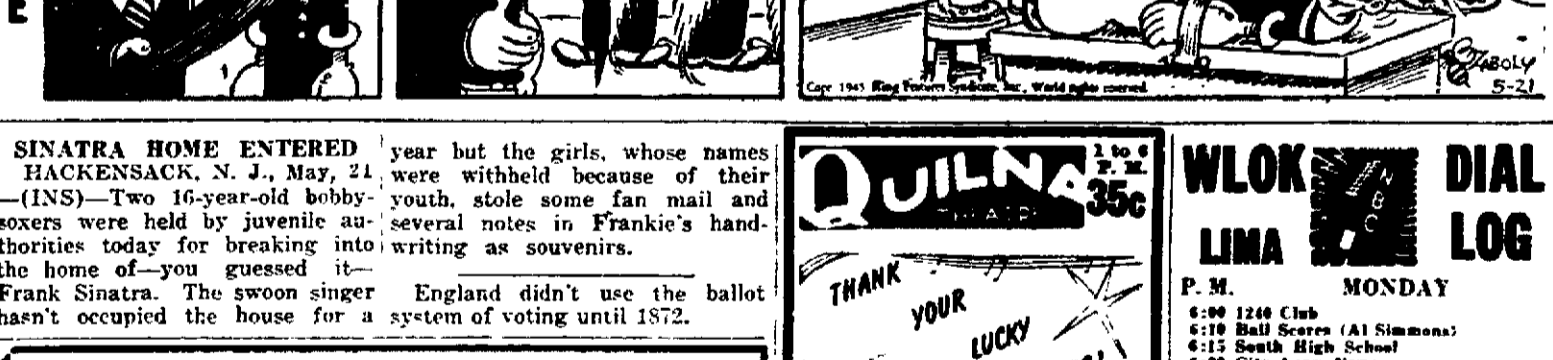

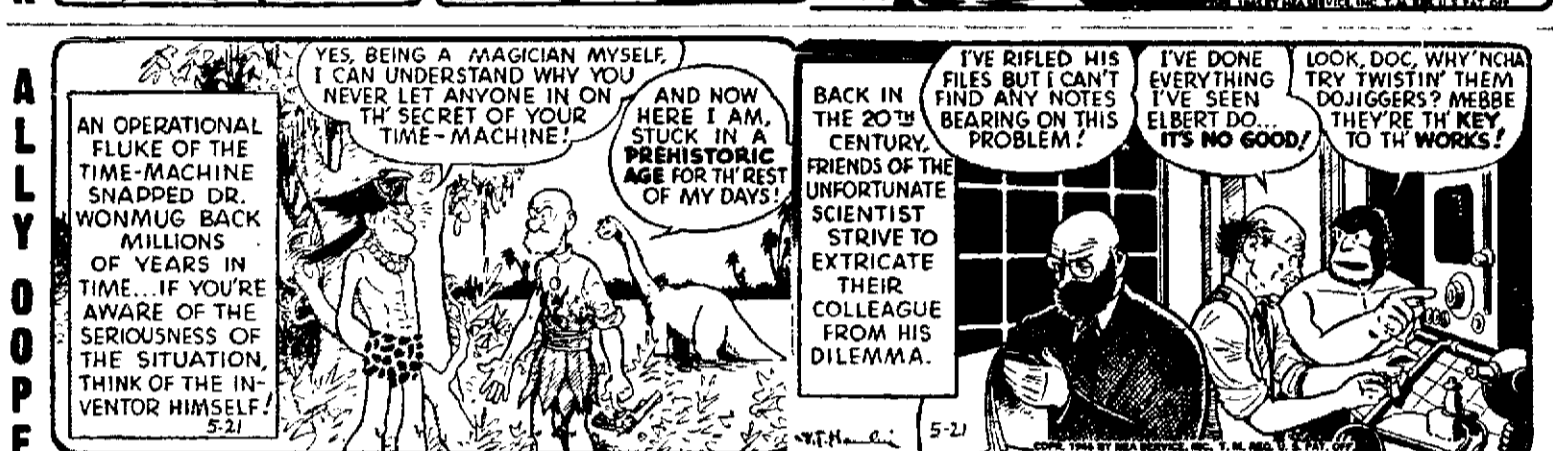

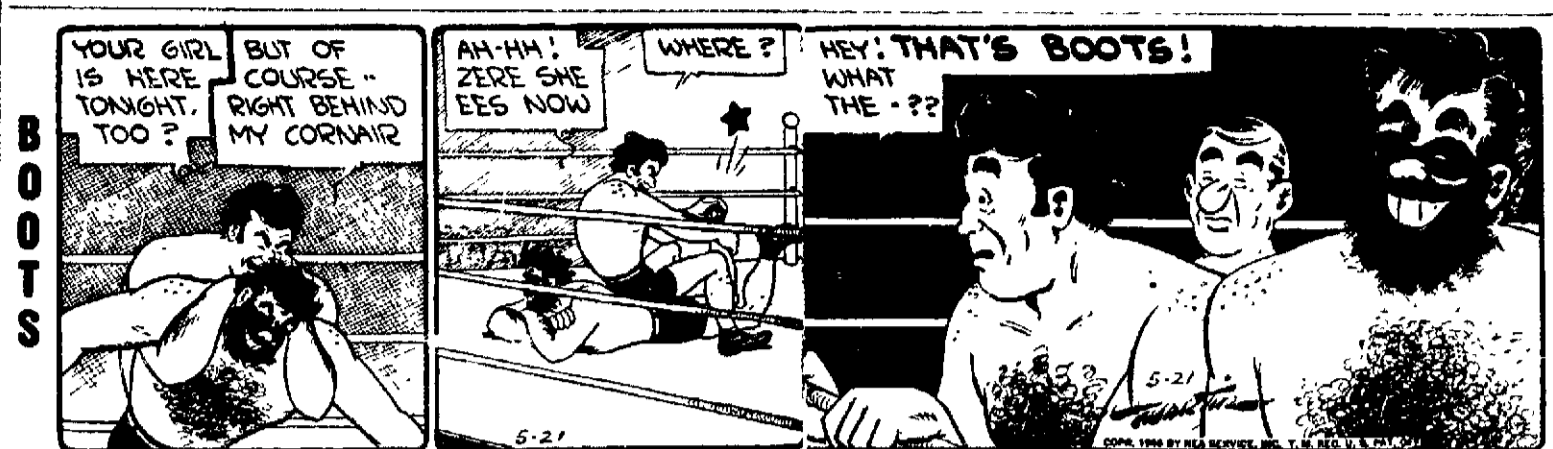

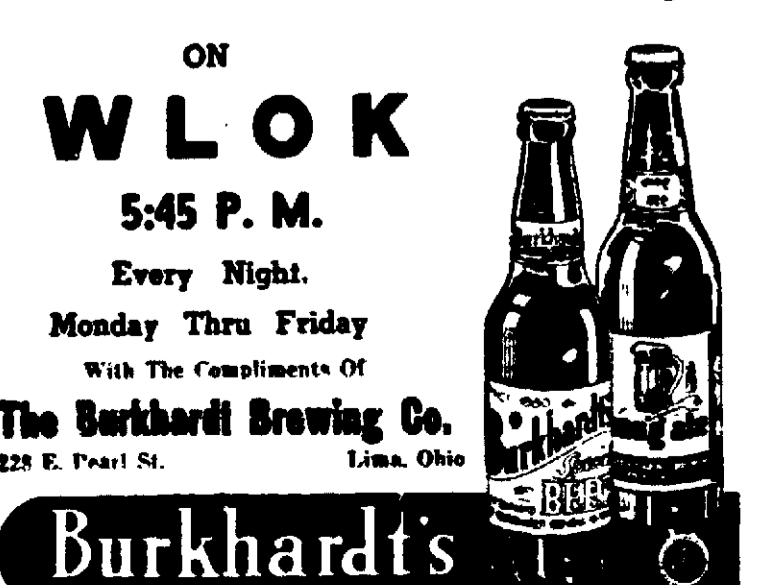

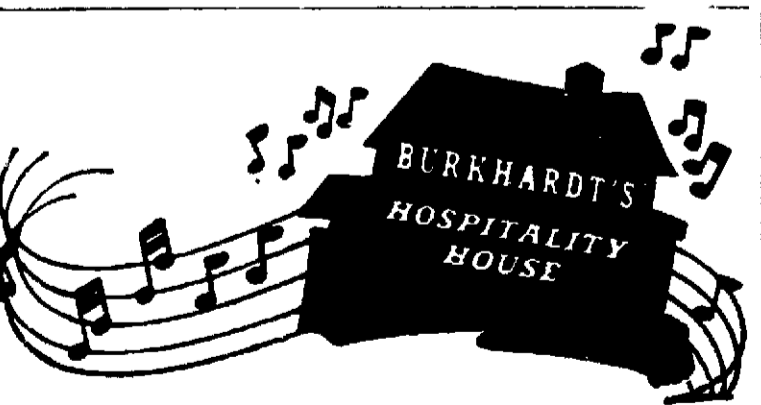

Everyone knows of the treachery of the Nazis, but until now, no one knew how things were plotted. Now it has been told in picture form at the State theatre. "Hotel Berlin" tells the story behind the story and its stars are Faye Emerson, Helmut Dantine and Dick Haymes. For everything from the costumes to the music is colorful.

AIRBORNE ROCKETS ARE TRIED BY ARMY
DOVER, Del., May 21—(AP)—The Army air field here today disclosed for the first time that it has been experimenting with airborne rockets—fired from launchers attached to airplanes.

A spokesman for the Army public relations office in Philadelphia said "an airborne rocket is one launched from a rocket launcher affixed to the wings or part of the body of an airplane."

BENEFIT PAYMENTS DROP
COLUMBUS, O., May 21—(AP)—The Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported today a 29 per cent decline in benefit payments during April as compared with March and said the downward trend was continuing into May.

Battlewise Infantrymen On Vox Pop Program Monday

The spiteful whine of Garand rifle bullets, earth-shaking roars of exploding mortar shells, sharp hisses of rockets and jets of death from flamethrowers will punctuate the fighting words of battle-wise American infantrymen as they re-create combat experiences and demonstrate their weapons in Washington, D. C., over the Vox Pop program Monday at 8 p. m. on WABC.

"And Now Tomorrow" will be the dramatic offering of the Radio theatre on Monday at 9 p. m. over WABC. The original screen stars Loretta Young and Alan Ladd. Grace Allen's broadcast is heard Monday, at 8:30 p. m., over WABC. A business venture turns into a death trap for Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson when "The Singular Case of the Paradox Chamber" is dramatized on "The New Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," Monday, at 8:30 p. m. over WOR.

14 Japs Killed For Every Yank Loss In Pacific

(INS)—The Office of War Information disclosed today that for every American who has given his life in Pacific amphibious warfare 14 Japanese have died. Furthermore, the announcement said, three Japanese have died for every American casualty (dead, wounded or missing) from Guadalcanal to Okinawa. The OWI issued a table of American casualties contrasted with Japanese deaths in all major Pacific amphibious operations, breaking down totals which thru May 9 for the United States show 33,429 killed in action, 125,447 wounded and 4,175 missing, in contrast to 498,697 Japanese killed or taken prisoners. Japanese prisoners number only about 10,000, OWI said, showing that almost all of the nearly 500,000 Japanese have died.
