Uncle Ray's Corner PERE DAVID'S DEER SHEDS

EACH YEAR Eighty years ago, a deerskin reached the hands of a Frenchman known as Pere David, or "Father David." Many a deerskin man known as Pere David, or "Father David." Many a deerskin had been seen in France and elsewhere in Europe, but this one was different. It had come from a deer of a kind which had not been seen by Pere David or any of his friends. Sent in from China, it had belonged to an animal in a park owned by the Chinese emperor.

Because Pere David owned the brown later years, several of the animals were obtained by zoos in England and Germany. Before the out-break of the second World war, Tomorrow: Cacius Facts.
