Tuneful entertainment is promised in "Swing Out, Sister," the new comedy-musical coming Wednesday to the Sigma theatre. Rod Cameron and Frances Raeburn top the cast in this novel screen event which has such favorites as Arthur Treacher, Fuzzy Knight, Billie Burke and Jacqueline de Wit.

Wistful-faced, pigtailed Margaret O'Brien, whose extraordinary talents have endeared her to: movie-goers everywhere has the most important role of her meteoric career as a little girl of large faith who motiviates the enthe action of "Music For Millions" now at the Ohio theatre.

Betty Grable and Dick Haymes head the brilliant cast of "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe," the new technicolor picture now playing at the Quilna theatre Also featured are Phil Silvers, William Gaxton, Beatrice Kay, Carmen Cavallaro, Willie Solar and Margaret Dumont.

Maybe you have guessed the plot of the film "Hotel Berlin" which is now showing at the State theatre and stars Fave Emerson. Helmut Dantine and Andrea King. The picture is set against the Nazi-inhabited Hotel Berlin, in the German capital city, and tells of those things which up until now, were unsuspected by the public. Now you can find out just what will happen when those men come marching home. In the film "The Impatient Years" starring Jean Aithur, Lee Bowman and Charles Coburn, at the Lyric theatre, an exact setting is made to show how the fellows will feel when they come home to wives they hardly
