'Wuthering Heights' Opens At Quilna Theatre Friday

Adapted from Emily Bronte's famous works, "Wuthering Heights," starring Lawrence Olivier and Merle Oberon, comes to the Quilna theatre Friday.

With the English moors as a setting, the film unfolds on a large estate where many of the scenes were made. The story has the mystery and intrigue which has become so fascinating to many movie fans and has ranked among the first in movie-land. An outstanding cast, headed by co-stars, Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn and including such tried and true comedy experts as Lucille Ball, Keenan Wynn and Felix Bressart, has been brought together to provide one of the most mirthful movies of the season, "Without Love" now at the Ohio theatre. Walt Disney, who has a long list of "firsts" to his credit, tosses another production bombshell to a delighted public in his latest fulllength technicolor filmusical, "The Three Caballeros" opening Saturday at the Sigma theatre. Disney has incorporated in this screen hit real-life people and animated characters. It is something different, and something you'll never forget.

Randolph Scott finds himself in hot water more than once in "Belle of the Yukon" now at the State theatre. The film, which depicts the gold country of Alaska, has many amusing scenes which never have been brought to life by a
