

Saturday's Show Booking Is Tops

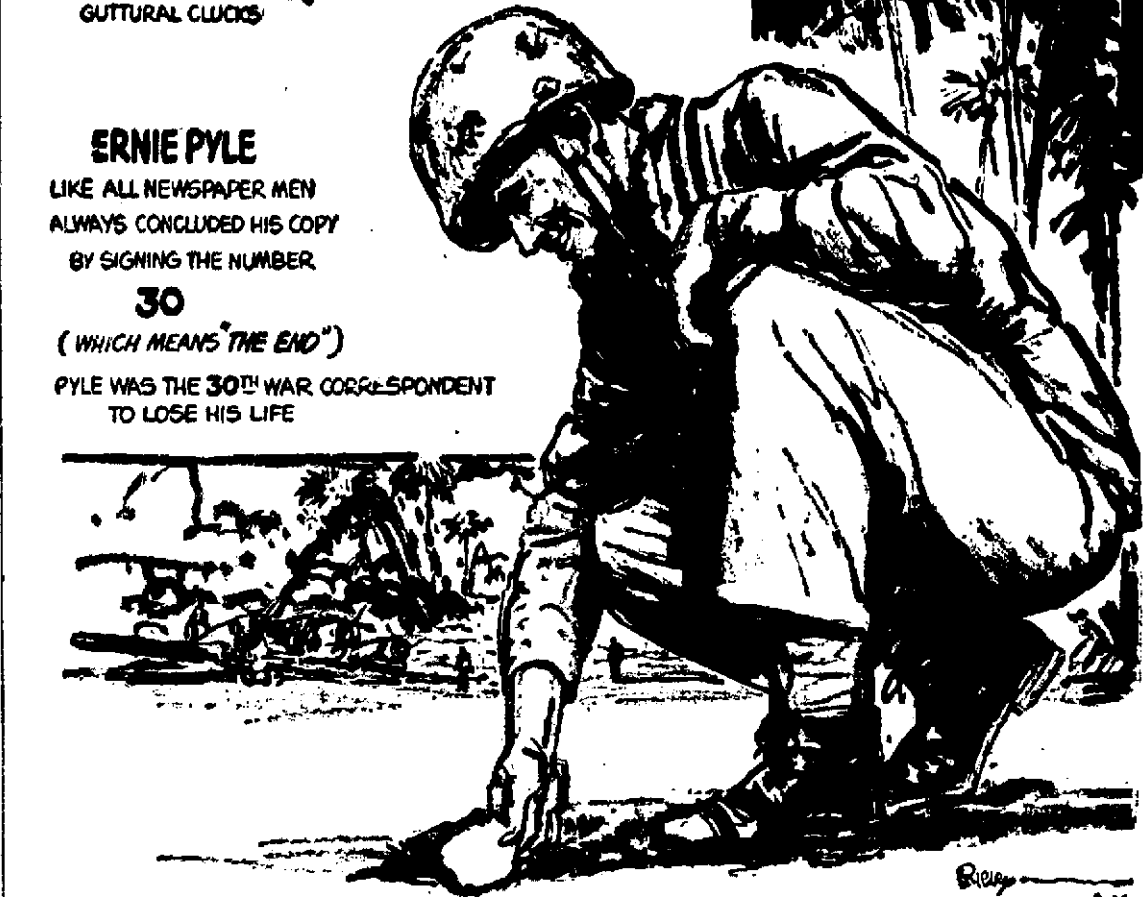

Now that summer finally seems to be on the way, no doubt many of you will be able to find something to do. If you can't seem to find anything to interest you, there is one alternative—a movie. Those on the bill this Saturday are unusually good.

New Summer Concert Series To Be Heard From Chicago

A new series of summer concerts presenting noted opera and light opera singers and the orchestra and chorus under the direction of Robert Trendler, will be inaugurated on the "Chicago Theatre of the Air" at 10 p. m. Saturday over WOR.

Roy Acuff offers a beautiful love ballad, "Don't Let Your Sweet Love Die," to celebrate Cupid's happy hunting time, the month of June, on "Grand Ole Opry," at 10:30 p. m. Saturday over Station WEAF.

The rehabilitation problem of a soldier who has suffered a brain injury provides the basis for a dramatic story on the Army Service Forces "Assignment Home," in its broadcast over WABC at 4:30 p. m. Saturday. Sgt. Arthur Laurens is the author of this series.

American Army Air Force pilots have engaged in more than 1,350,000 sorties against the enemy since Pearl Harbor. Over 60 per cent of these were flown in the first nine months of 1944.
