

Listener's Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

9:15 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Mrs. M. M. Roblin, resident of the citizens' committee of price control.

1:45 p. m.—WJJD—Baseball: Washington vs. New York Yankees.

1:45—WIND—Baseball: Giants vs. Brooklyn Dodgers.

2:30—W-G-N—Ida Bailey Allen interviews Fred Kaiser, who will talk on "Heating and Air Conditioning the Post-War Home."

8:30—WIND—Baseball: Sox vs. Cleveland Indians.

9:30—WBEM—Congress Speaks.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

9:30 a. m.—W-G-N—Charm School, with Virginia Clark, Forrest Lewis, and Lee Bennett.

7:00 p. m.—WMAQ—Ginny Simms, with former service men as guests.

7:30—WGNB—Brownstone Theater: "The Fortune Hunter."

7:30—WLS—Alan Young show. Guest: Eddie Cantor.

8:00—WMAQ—Mystery Theater presents "Breakdown."

8:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly with Marlin (Beulah) Hurt, Shirley Mitchell, and the King's Men.

9:00—WMAQ—The Man Called X, starring Herbert Marshall. [Premier.]

9:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Diamond: "The Case of the Dissolving Weapon."

9:30—WENR—One Man's Family: "Information About the Dead."

MUSIC

10:00 a. m.—WMAQ—Fred Waring show, with Jane Wilson, Joan Wheatley, Honey and the Bees, and others.

Noon—WAAF—Symphonic hour: Overture to Bellini's "Norma."

8:30—W-G-N, WGNB—Chicago Philharmonic orchestra. Conductor: Henry Weber. Raphael Spiro is soloist in Wieniawski's concerto No. 2 in D minor for Violin and Orchestra. Orchestra also offers Dvorak's "Scherzo Capriccioso" and "Bacchanale" and "Finale" from Wagner's "Tannhauser."

8:30—WENR—Spotlight: Mai Hallett

9:30—WMAQ—An Evening with Romberg. Guest: June Forrest.

10:30—WIND—Symphonic hour: Saint-Saens Cello Concerto No. 1 in A minor.