

Spain's Civil Strife Shown In Epic Technicolor Picture

With a background as real as life itself, the outstanding film "For Whom the Bell Tolls" with Gary Cooper and Ingrid Bergman opens Thursday at the State theatre.

Revolving around the Spanish Civil War, the technicolor picture builds in excitement, taut suspense, thrilling action—all combining to make it an unforgettable motion picture experience. Three years in the making is a long production period, but the exigencies of the story demanded it and the result shows the time was well spent.

Of all the hilarious comedies ever to be filmed, "Pillow to Post" seems to have taken the proverbial "cake." The picture which is now showing at the Ohio theatre tells of a traveling saleslady and of her plight in finding some spot where she can get a good night's rest. Playing the role of the saleslady is none other than Ida Lupino and her romantic interest is William Prince.

Laurel and Hardy are back at their old tricks again in the film "The Bullfighters" which is currently playing at the Quilna theatre. Sharing the billing is "Eve Knew Her Apples" with Ann Miller, another comedy picture.

Adding to the fun are the pictures "Under Western Skies" and "The Singing Sheriff" opening Wednesday at the Lyric theatre. The former picture has in its cast of characters such stars as Martha O'Driscoll, Noah Beery, Jr., and Leo Carrillo; the latter, Bob Crosby.

YOUTH IS INJURED

ST. MARYS, June 20—X-rays taken at Gibbons hospital, Celina, revealed that Tommy Silver, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Silver of this city, had sustained a chest concussion and severe body bruises when a truck on which he had hitched a ride rammed into a tree west of St. Marys. He was brought home after treatment. The driver of the truck and his helper received lacerations of the face and hands and multiple bruises. Another young hitchhiker, Charles Swartz, was uninjured.

The first pneumatic tires to be used on an automobile were installed 50 years ago—March 11, 1815.
