

Sherlock Holmes Back Again With 'Orange Pit' Adventure

Devotees of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle are in for another visual treat for the exciting Sherlock Holmes mystery, "The Adventures of the Five Orange Pits," has been filmed under the title of "House of Fear."

Opening Wednesday at the Sigma Theatre, the film tells the members of a murder club and their activities. Each member has a large insurance policy upon himself, aside out to the last surviving member of the club. For further details you won't want to miss this film. "Racing in the sport of kings." So said Alan Ladd in "Salty O'Rourke," the film now showing at the Ohio theatre. But the funny part of the whole set-up in that until going on location for this picture, Ladd had never seen a horse race in his life. So to give him the lowdown on the sport, everyone in the studio appointed themselves committees of one to tell Ladd all about it.

Rarely does Hollywood turn out a motion picture so daringly dramatic as "Chicago Kid," starring Donald Barry and now showing at the Quilna theatre. In the role of a man whose only aim in life is one of revenge for the death of his father in prison on what he believes was a "framed" charge, Barry gives one of the most convincing performances of his motion picture career.

Horse racing has recently been permitted to enter into the limelight of sports again and since it has, England may again begin her famed steeplechases. Now, we can't all go to England just for a horse race but we can see it thru pictures. At the State theatre, film fans now have the privilege of seeing the Grand National steeplechase which was held every year at Aintree, England. The film is "National Velvet" and stars Mickey Rooney and Elizabeth Taylor.

If your searching for entertainment that will produce laughter and yet cause you to do a little thinking, you'll find this sort of a film in the Lyric theatre where "Son of Fury" starring Tyrone Power and Gene Tierney is currently showing. This is the film that will cause you to think—the other is "Footlight Serenade" with Betty Grable and John Payne, a delightful comedy-romance.
