Two Mischievous Kids Cavort In Film 'Patrick The Great'

Here we go again! Donald O'Connor and Peggy Ryan will arrive Thursday at the State theatre in the film "Patrick The Great."

Screen favorites of film-fans from their very first picture, these two kids stir up more mischief than one could imagine. Now, in this their latest film both play the roles in the superb fashion that has been evident in every one of their other;

Alan Ludd's second film since he received a medical discharge from the Army is "Salty O'Rourke" now showing at the Ohio theatre. Cast as the tough guy jockev of the piece is Stanley "Stash" Clements, who achieved fame as the hard-as-nails kid with Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald in "Going My Way."

Constance Moore and Dennis O'Keefe have the starring roles in "Earl Carroll's Vanities" current-It showing at the Quilna theatre. Telling of how royalty came to the United States to float a loan and had the princess in a Broadway show is the theme of the film. Sharing the billing is "Chicago Kid" with Donald Barry

Basil Rathbone is back again as a super-sleuth in "House of Fear," now showing at the Sigma theatre. Rathbone portrays the role of A Conan Doyle's detective Sherlock Holmes, and has as his cohort Nigel Bruce, the genial Dr Watson The to feature is "Honeymoon Ahead."

Two returning pictures which will give you the type of entertainment you have been looking for the currently showing at the Lyric theatre. First, "Son of Fury," starring Tyrone Power is outstanding because of its character portrays while "Footlight Serenade" with Betty Grable nad John Payne will prove to be exceptional as a comedy, musical-romance.

DEATH DATE IS SET

CLEVELAND, June 27-(AP) The court of appeals has ruled that 18-year-old Henry Hagert, convict-Charles and James, 12, must die in the electric chair Oct. 13. He was scheduled to be electrocuted June 25 but a second trial was after the death penalty was upheld by the appellate court.

In World War I, 18 per cent of hospitals died: in World War II. mal requirements. only three per cent.
