A "perfect crame" whose very perfection leads to the murderer's eventual undoing makes an exciting theme for the new psychological melodrama "Conflict" which opens Friday at the Ohio theatre with a threestar cart hended by Humphreys Bogart, Alexis Smith and Sydney scientific methods the film or sents Bogart in the unsympathetic role of a man who murders hat wife because of persistent love for

Just how one can assume that everyone is against him may never be known until some psychiatrist figures it out, but in the mean time this particular feeling provto be a good buckground for movies. This you can see in the film "Chicago Kid" curtently showing at the Quilna theatre ard starring Donald Bairy

Powerful noving graph z a film that crackles across the serren like electric power on the loose, the newest adventure drama, "Fscape in the D sert" will open Saturday at the Sigma theatre The film has everything Thundering action, an roung moments of physical violence and a tender love theme. Plus all this it has as its players Jean Sullivan Philip Dorn, Helmut Dantine, Alan Hale and Irene Manning

Funnier than a bug's ear-so to speak-is the film "Patrick the Great." starring Donald O'Conner and Peggy Rvan, now playing at the State theatre How two kids crash Broadway is the theme and what these two kids do couldn't be told on paper. Sharing the billing is "Swingout Sister"

If you are in the mood to attend a couple of pictures guaranteed to make your hair stand completely on end, then don't miss the two films coming to the Lyric theatra Friday. "Mark of the Whistler" that is certain to keep you in a cold sweat.
