Then began the excellent

Then began the excellent program with Mr. Joseph Woolsey, past president of the West Side Business Men's Association, doing a great job as master of ceremonies, Following Mr. Woolsey's inspiring message, we were introduced to the famous Gerke Twins from Madison. Julie and Juliette, 11-year old daughters of the Treasurer of the Wis. Power and Light Co., played the piano and entertained us with comical songs and verses about many of the staff members at Wawbeek. These girls, who are not professional entertainers, certainly deserve their rating among the top entertainers of the country. Especially pleasing was their wonderful interpretation of the Blue Danube. They leading us in the singing of God Bless America.

Mr. Woolsey then introduced Ben Berger of Madison, a truly great magician. The opening number was a series of acrobatic stunts performed by Mr. Berger's two small daughters, Alvora and Monora.

With the assistance of Mrs.

With the assistance of Mrs. Berger, Ben then took over and thrilled us with many absolutely amazing feats of magic. Mr. Berger climaxed his performance by introduc-ing us to Corky, his "Charlie McCarthy." The two then put on a comedy show that would have done Edgar Ber-gen proud. Mr. Berger has made a successful career of show business, which isn't hard to understand after seeing him in action. To say that we at Camp Waw-
