

Wax Museum Supplies Ghostly Setting For Lon Chaney Film

An eerie wax museum is the setting for "The Frozen Ghost," thrilling Inner Sanctum Mystery, opening Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

In the film, Lon Chaney and Evelyn Ankers, his screen fiancée, are teamed in a radio act in which he is a hypnotist and she a mind-reader. One night, when a heekler he has put into a trance drops dead of acute alcoholism, Chaney holds himself responsible. What happens from there on is a mystery until you have seen the movie. Some of the best acting recently recorded on celluloid is that found in the film "Back to Bataan," currently showing at the Ohio theatre. Starring John Wayne, the film opens with the fall of the peninsula and works up to the point where it shows the organized guerrilla bands preparing the way for American liberators.

So amazing, so different, so wonderful, so new it is being acclaimed the lyrical miracle of all time. "Where Do We Go From Here?" the hilarious, song-studded technicolor hit, starring Fred MacMurray, Jane Haver and Joan Leslie, continues its stay at the Quilna theatre. Unusual and delightfully different, the film presents MacMurray as a frustrated and frantic fellow who, in search of love, is led a mad and merry chase thru the centuries by joyous Joan and luscious June.

Don't forget our drooping cup girls when you go to see Van Johnson in "Between Two Women." Perhaps one of the most exciting Dr. Gillespie pictures ever to have been made, the film has both Marilyn Maxwell and Gloria De Haven. Sharing the billing is "Betrayal From the East," "The Big Noise" with Laurel and Hardy is now showing at the Lyric theatre. What these two comedians do to a secret invention shouldn't happen to the proverbial dog.

Miracles Of Plastic Surgery Described On Medical Series

One of Hollywood's foremost character actors, Gene Lockhart, stars as a fighting physician in a real life drama about plastic surgery, "Lips for the Trumpet," on "The Doctor Fights" series Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over Station WABC. The story is based on the authentic exploits of a World War II medical officer.

One of the country's foremost vocal groups, the Merry Macs, will be guest stars of the week on the U. S. Army Air Forces presentation, "Wings For Tomorrow," Tuesday at 10:30 p. m. over WOR. Accompanied by M. Sgt. Felix Slatkin and the Air Forces orchestra, the group will offer their version of "Old Home Week" and the popular "Sentimental Journey."

Clinton Anderson, recently appointed secretary of agriculture in President Truman's cabinet, will act as guest moderator when the "American Forum of the Air" broadcast of Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WOR considers the question, "Are We in Danger of Losing Freedom of Expression?" When a dying man offers $1,000 to find his missing wife—"so as to kill her"—Michael Waring, alias the Falcon, discovers that "Murder Is No Burlesque," in the second WOR's new "Adventures of the Falcon" dramas Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. As the missing wife, a burlesque queen, is found murdered, it develops that several people were anxious for her death.

Smallest Auglaze Contingent Called
(Lima News Bureau)
WAPAKONETA, July 10—Six Auglaze-co men were included in an exceptionally small monthly draft call for this month, selective service officials here announced Monday. Yesterday's contingent, sent to Ft. Hayes, Columbus, for final induction into the armed forces, was one of the smallest ever to be summoned from this county.

Those reporting for service Monday were Clay Shaner, leader, St. Marys, Ralph Hazel Carner, Spencerville Route 1; Ralph Louis Osterloh, Munster Route 1; Robert Adolph Koenig, New Bremen Route 1; Paul Edward Whitehead, St. Marys, and Aloys Ferdinand Leaguers, Bothus Route 1.

A larger group left here Tuesday morning for Ft. Hayes, where they will undergo a pre-induction physical examination.

STEPS FOR CORRECTING MYOPIA TOLD IN PAPER
WAPAKONETA, July 10—Delegates to the Visual Training Conference in St. Louis heard Dr. R. D. McDonald, only Ohio representative at the session, report on progress in reducing myopia or short-sightedness. Dr. McDonald outlined his findings in a thesis specially prepared for the meeting, which had invited only 50 eminent men outside the host city. Considered an authority in his field, Dr. McDonald, recently returned from the conference, based his thesis on treatment accorded 75 men with myopia. These men had been rejected by the Air Corps because of sight defects but following scientific eye conditioning they were able to come up to rigid Air Corps standards and were subsequently accepted for service.
