Manpower Shortage Myth To Joan Fontaine -- On Screen

There's a new Joan Fontaine in "The Affairs of Susan," opening Friday at the Ohio theatre. She's gay, she's glamorous, she's romantic. She's got what every woman wants, multiplied by four-a man for every mood. The handsome foursome is George Brent, Dennis O'Keefe. Don DeFore and Walter Abel who woo, and of all things, win her in a mad dash for the altar.

Of course, only one hits it off, but their romantic ups-and-downs make for entertaining film face. This will be the last time for a while before you will get to see "Where Do We Go From Here?" again. It is currently showing at the Quilna theatre and has as its stars, Fred MacMurray, Joan Leslie and June Haver with a magnificent supporting cast. Friday will bring the two films, "Crime Doctor's Courage" and "Ten Cents Whether there is such a thing as a ghost is something that can be debated pro and con for hours on end But the Sigma theatre has something that will be of interest to a good many people and that is a "Frozen Ghost." Well, perhaps not in form but they do have a movie which is currently showing under that name

If you like dancing then you'll laugh yourself into a frenzy after you have seen "The Three Caballeros," which stars Donald Duck. Joe Carioca and Panchito. In the film, these three animated characters do sambas, congas, rhumbas and about every Latin-American dance you can think of.

One of the most tender stories ever to be told in film form is currently playing at the Lyric theatre under the title of "A Song For Julie." Sharing the billing 15 "Lone Texas Ranger"
