'I'm From Arkansas' Provokes Many Laughs At Lyric Theatre

A supreme test of comedy lines and situations is achieved in the hillbilly laugh-provoker "I'm From Arkansas," now at the Lyric theatre. The seven male and three female funnymakers, ordinarily a dour group when not playing their trade, unummously approve the picture in which they appear to the point where they actually laugh out loud at the recorded antics. But with all this approbation, the secret yearning of the comedian to play Ham- | let still burns. "Superb, magnificent, bravo"- all these and many more adjectives come from the lips of people who save seen the picture "The Corn Is Green," now showing at the Ohio theatre. In the film you'll find that certain something which shows that a thing can be done if one really tries.

Remember the days of the Klondike gold rush? Well maybe a few of you do, but very, very few. These days are depicted colorfully in the film "Call of the Wild," with Clark Gable and Loretta Young. It's a fascinating picture that has kept people talking ever since it was made.

At the Sigma theatre is a picture which has the fast-moving tempo of the age recorded in it. The film, "Imitation Of Lafe," which was one of the first Claudette Colbert starred in, will bring that certain something you have been looking for.

No one can live without love as one can see from the movie "Without Love," starring Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepbuin. Remember their triumph in the picture "Keeper of the Flame"-this proves to be just as stirring.
