

Greer Garson Has Great Role In 'Valley Of Decision' Film

Whether your thoughts of the week have been of a political nature or have been in the trend of pure, unadulterated fun, you'll find what you crave most in the line of amusements at the local theatres this Saturday.

Greer Garson gives an admirable performance in "Valley of Decision" now showing at the Ohio theatre. Miss Garson, long-known for her superior acting abilities, is actually put in the running again for the Academy Award with this superb picture. Gregory Peck, newcomer, who made such a hit in "Keys Of The Kingdom," comes forth for a second time to present his best.

A man's dream of a peaceful world was shattered when the U. S. senate refused to support his brilliant idea. Now, the idea has been put into film-form at the Quilna theatre. The picture "Wilson" tells of the hardships this president underwent in order that peace again might reign in the world.

Against a background of real, down-to-earth people, the picture at the Sigma theatre illustrates the things endured through this war. In the film, "A Medal For Benny," you'll find something unexplainably human in the story of a rough-neck turned into a hero. The picture is currently showing at the Sigma theatre and stars Arturo de Cordova and Dorothy Lamour.

A heart-warming story of present-day happenings will open Sunday at the State theatre. "The Clock" with Judy Garland and Robert Walker is the film-story of a boy and a girl who met under the clock in the Pennsylvania station in New York City and fell in love, were married and honeymooned all in 48 hours.

All have heard of the famous Jesse James but very few have heard of Jesse James, Jr. Well, before long, you will know whom

Joe E. Brown To Be Guest On 'Sports Parade' Program

Joe E. Brown, famed comedian whose love for baseball is so great he almost chose the national sport as a career instead of the stage and screen, will be the guest of "The Sports Parade" on the broadcast at 5 p. m. of Saturday, over WOR. This program, consisting of roundups of famous athletes, will be from Los Angeles, and Joe will talk of his favorite game in his own inimitable manner.

"They Walk Again," first of two programs dramatizing the readjustment of a returning soldier who lost his limbs in combat, will be presented on the Army Service Forces "Assignment Home," when it airs Saturday at 10:15 p. m. over station WABC. In this first half of the two-part story, the drama shows the Army's preparations, both physical and psychological, to ready the veteran for his return to civilian life. This is an encore performance of a script by Arthur Laurents, first broadcast last February. Roy Acuff offers two oft-requested favorites, "I'm Sitting On Top Of The World" and "Where Could I Go But To The Lord," on the "Grand Ole Opry" show at 10:30 p. m. Saturday over Station WEAJ. Other tuneful highlights include "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia" and "Just Tell Them That You Saw Me," harmonized by the Old Hickory Singers; "Fire In The Mountain," a fast fiddle solo by Tommy Magness; Mack McGarr, his mandolin and "China Boy;" the Rachel and Oswald duet, "Dear Old Southern Home," and the square dance closer, "Turkey In The Straw," played by the Smoky Mountain Boys. The Duke of Paducah (Whitney Ford) jokes about his circus days, and Minnie Pearl comes by with the latest doings down at Grinder's Switch.

FUGITIVES TAKEN

LONDON, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Supt. William F. Amrine of the London prison farm has reported the return of two escapees, one of whom, Walter Robers, 34, sentenced from Preble-co to a one-to-20-year term for shooting to wound and for burglary, came back voluntarily. Amrine said Charles Rhodus, 34, sentenced from Butler-co to one-to-20 years for shooting to kill and for burglary, was returned from Middletown where he was apprehended by police.

Due to boll weevils, about $60,000,000 in cotton is lost in the United States annually.

Woman Crawls Into Furnace To End Life

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 4.—(INS)—Coroner David J. Belinky ruled today as a suicide the death of Miss Minnie Clarkson, 55, who made a funeral pyre of the furnace in her home.

The woman's brothers, Steve and Ted Clarkson, told authorities they found their sister's charred body in the furnace when they sought the source of smoke they smelled in the house. Police said she apparently crawled into the furnace feet first and then lit the fire that burned her to death.

Firemen and police had to cut away the front of the furnace to extricate the body from the fire-box.

Miss Clarkson's brothers told Belinky that ill health for five years had caused her to be dependent.

Iron was taken from New York and Pennsylvania mines as early as 1710.

Beer Is Used As Hair Rinse

CLEVELAND, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Sip the foam off that stein glass slowly, sir, for mildness has discovered beer can make her locks glow.

Beauty practitioners today reported Cleveland women in increasing numbers are using beer as a hair rinse after shampoo.

"Beer gives body to the hair," explained one salon operator. "It keeps the hair from flying around and it hastens the drying time. In addition, it gives it that well-groomed look."

Here is the accepted treatment:

"After a shampoo and regular rinse, pour a half-bottle of any kind of beer or ale over the head. Leave it on—the beer, that is. The odor disappears in the drain."

What to do with the other half of the bottle?

Mixed one hair-do expert: "Use it internally."

DRAFT QUESTIONNAIRES HELP SALVAGE DRIVE

HILLSBORO, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—The Highland-co selective service board, in disposing of occupational questionnaire files on men in the 45-65 age group, donated more than 300 pounds to the local waste paper campaign yesterday.

Guard officials said the questionnaires were mutilated, in compliance with orders from state and national offices, before being given in the Boy Scout paper drive.
