

'Medal For Benny' Is Top-Notch Entertainment

Sigma's Film Very Moving Picture Fare

"A question is never settled until it is settled right" someone once said. So the question of whether Lima has been getting good movies was settled this Sunday. For further proof, check your theatre marquees and guide for the week. Better yet, see the pictures.

For instance, at the Sigma theatre where the film "A Medal For Benny" is currently playing, a top-notch cast was assembled for the film so that the public might get the very best in entertainment. The feeling and depth each of the players gives to his performance is a tribute to John Steinbeck, who originated this tender, moving story. Arturo de Cordova and Dorothy Lamour carry the leading roles. The picture blends pathos and comedy, elements difficult to unite without destroying a basic theme and mood.

A tempestuous romance which provides a solid story, superb acting, and entertainment can be found in "Valley of Decision," currently playing at the Ohio theatre and starring Gregory Peck and Greer Garson. It finds Miss Garson portraying the servant girl, Mary Rafferty, who comes to work in the big Scott mansion in Pittsburgh and falls in love with Paul Scott, the son in whom the elder Scott places his faith and hope for the future of the family and the steel mill they founded.

The picture "Wilson" at the Quina theatre proves to be another "best" in the theatre guide for this week. The picture is based on the life of Woodrow Wilson, the president who saw the United States thru World War I and who ruined his health fighting for a league to keep world peace. You'll see the enthusiastic Wilson played by Alexander Knox, a memorable epic.

With Judy Garland and Robert Walker, "The Clock" now playing at the State theatre, emerges as one of the most enchanting films of the year. It's the tender, heart-warming story of the romance between Bob, a soldier in New York City on a 48-hour pass, and Judy, a lovely girl who takes the lonely serviceman to her heart. The picture is full of beautiful moments as the two meet accidentally at Penn Station and begin a two-day romance.

Wildly heralded as something different, "The Bridge of San Luis Rey" starring Lynn Bari, Akim Tamiroff, Francis Lederer, and Donald Woods, open Monday at the Lyric theatre. The picture, adapted from Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, is set against the city of Lima, Peru, where over two centuries ago a bridge collapsed killing five people. The picture concerns the life stories of five people who were killed and of those who were permitted to live.

Teen-agers Enjoy Center Activities

The Teen-agers are taking advantage of the recreational facilities that the center offers for leisure time recreation. The center is becoming their headquarters for wholesome recreation. Their most interesting activity is the "Teen-ager Night," which has become so popular that there is hardly standing room in the building.

Wednesday the Story Hour class met in the auditorium with Miss Lucilla Woolley in charge. Friday the girls' softball team played the Y. W. C. A. in its final league game. The girls have only lost one game in the second round.

Cpl. T. C. Evans who has served overseas in Europe, and is on a 30-day furlough, is spending his leisure time at the Center.

Germans Relieved By Potsdam Action

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
BERLIN, Aug. 4—(AP)—Berliners, thru their six daily newspapers, now know what happened at Potsdam during the Big Three meeting.

Three newspapers used most of their space today to print the full text of the communique. The rest published extensive summaries.

Inquiring among many Germans, especially those versed in international affairs, I find the foremost reaction was one of relief. The awards of territory to Poland were regarded as the hardest thing to bear.

Alfred E. Smith attended school only seven years but he had honorary degrees from six universities.

Gen. Vandergrift To Guest On 'Family Hour' Sunday

Gen. A. Vandergrift of the U. S. Marine Corps, will appear on the "Family Hour" broadcast at 5 p. m. Sunday, as the highlight of the "Family Hour's" salute to the Marine Corps on the third anniversary of its landing on Guadalcanal, over WABC.

A seemingly harmless two-dollar bet at the Santa Anita race track sends the young detective duo, Pat and Jean Abbott, off on another unusual murder case during the dramatization of "The Little Man in the Purple Vest," to be heard on "The Abbott Mysteries" at 6 p. m. Sunday over WOR.

The object of the Abbotts' search does a vanishing act, and the ever-loving young sleuths find themselves looking for the little man who wasn't there.

Romance and drama will be pictured in melody by Carol Bruce, Curt Massey, The Ranch Hands, Harry Sosnik, his ensemble and orchestra, when "Sunday on the N-K Ranch" takes to the air at 9:30 p. m. Sunday over WJZ. Miss Bruce offers "So In Love" and "Out of Nowhere." Curt Massey sings "In Acapulco," "Someone Lovelier Than You," and, with the assistance of the group, "Saddle Your Blues to a Wild Mustang."

Harry Sosnik and his orchestra bring a unique treatment to the Latin-American favorite, "Tico Tico," before Miss Bruce and Massey blend their voices in a novel arrangement of "There's No You." A medley, "Look For The Silver Lining" and "Smile, Darn You, Smile," which closes the program, will be offered by the ensemble.
