Mystery, Drama Of Old Peru In "Bridge Of San Luis Rey" | 8

Out of the color, mystery and drama of old Peru, which provide dramatic highlights for Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, has been created the entertainment-packed film, "Bridge of Sun Luis Rey," opening Monday at the Lyric theatre.

The novel has been transcribed faithfully and dramatically for the screen and deals with a young priest's search for the purposes of the Almighty in the sudden death of five persons who die when the ancient bridge collapses beneath them.

Romantic, powerful, colorful, and tender, "The Valley of Decision" can almost be summed up in these four words. It is one of the most provocative love stories ever to unfold before the cameras, enacted by a stellar cast. Greer Garson, first lady of the screen, and Gregory Peck, have two outstanding roles. Proof of what little recognition is given to a great idea is shown in "Wilson," now playing at the Quilna theatre. Here's a picture you won't want to miss and one you'll never forget.

Every now and then Hollywood turns out a film which grips the public consciousness by reason of its simple sincerity and warm appeal Such a picture is "A Medal For Benny," now playing at the Sigma theatre. The film stars Dorothy Lamour and Alturo de

You might put it on record as love at first sight or just intuition but any way you look at it you'll find something in the film 'The Clock" that tells the story of millions of girls and GIs today. You'll want to see "The Clock," starring Judy Garland and Robert Welker, currently showing at the State theatre.

Anne Baxter and Thomas Mitchell have the leading roles in "The Sullivans"—the film coming in to perface the picture "Wilson." Sharing the billing is "Home In Indiana."
