Army, Navy Release Much Needed Space

Undergraduate Wisconsin residents and veterans will be given preference in assignment of rooms to be available at the Unisome war bonds at the war fiversity of Wisconsin this fall benounced Saturday.

A total of 396 men can be housed in the units, 234 at the three houses of the Kronshage residence halls and 162 at the stadium will accommodate two to four men, and occupants will have a choice of eating at Van STRPHUS, or HOVER-FLIES Hise or renting rooms without board. Tentative board-and-room rates are $435 in rooms for two and $419.50 in rooms for four. For room only the rate is $132 in double rooms and $115.50 in rooms for four.

"ladybugs" also play a part in the war against aphids.

The hover fly family has a number of branches, and in one branch the larvas, or young, lead a very different kind of life. Instead of chasing aphids, they rest under water or in the midst of These larvas need air to breathe. Unless they have air, they will die, So we may ask, "How do they get along while in mud or under the surface of water?"

The answer is that each larva of this kind has a tube which serves the same purpose as the tube used by a man in a diving suit. One end of the tube rests on the surface of the water or mud.

Four Buildings

three houses of the Kronshage residence halls and 162 at the Randall stadium dormitory.

Release of the buildings will make the university's housing shortage less acute, Fred said. Graduate students will not be admitted until undergraduates have been housed.

Students living at Jones. Swenson, and Charaberlin houses of the Kronshage unit will have double rooms, and meal service will be provide cafeteria style in Van Hise refectory. The tentative bacand-and-room rate is $435 for the school year.
