Lima's Theatres Offer Wide Variety On Weekend Bills

It's funny what a mixture of things can do—they can either turn out good or bad. This week, the smattering of war, comedy, romance, music and the like which were mixed together, came out in perfection form to make the week-end's pictures some of the best to reach Lima for some time.

Here is the tale of a boy who brought bouquets to his girls in the days before Pearl Harbor and who won one himself in the uniform of a United States Marine. Here, in one motion picture, is everything that makes our country great Our pride in our heritage, our willingness to die if need be for the rights we believe so deeply are ours, are captured in the story of Al Schmid, "Pride of the Marines," currently showing at the Ohio theatre.

A gang of fellows can't expect to keep a race horse in crowded New York without attracting attention of the police and complaints from the neighbors — which is just what happens to the East Side Kids in "Mr. Muggs Rides Again." This is a laugh-getting film with a race track as a back drop now showing at the Quilna theatre. The hysterically funny situations in which the Kids and their animal friend find themselves are topped when one of the town's best physicians is brought to the East Side Clubhouse to give the horse medical attention.

Strange mystery surrounds a freighter drifting lonesomely in the Gulf of Mexico, thus causing investigation by George Raft who plays the role of Johnny Angel in the picture of the same name now showing at the Sigma theatre. Several clues, tho if revealed would spoil the film for you, bear mute testimony of what may have happened aboard that ship.

A man for every mood—that indeed would be Utopia for any woman. Anyhow, that is exactly what Joan Fontaine has in "Affairs of Susan" opening Sunday at the State theatre. She is starred with George Brent, whom she wins, loses and wins back again; Don Defore, Dennis O'Keefe and Walter Abel.

Jimmy Ellison plays the role of the assistant district attorney in the District Attorney and the Carter Case" opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre. Sharing the billing is "Cyclone Kid."

Lid-lifting and opening of the oven door will cause heat loss which lengthens cooking time and wastes fuel.

Barnett Begins New Office Term

Away on his annual vacation, Allen-co Treasurer Ray W. Barnett officially entered his second term Saturday. Because the work load remains heavy in the treasurer's office, associates pointed out that no ceremonies had been scheduled in conjunction with the occasion.

When Barnett returns next week, his office said, he will resume his duties where he left off. He was administered the oath of office recently, that being the sole formality connected with remaining on the job after re-election.

During his career in Lima, Barnett has been active in Republican party politics.

NAMED TO SCHOOL POST

LANCASTER, Aug. 31—(AP)—Paul Cummins, 38, superintendent of Bern Union schools at Sugar Grove, O., has been named superintendent of the Fairfield-co schools. Cummins succeeds R. M. Eyman, newly-appointed assistant state education director.

Stirring Tales Of PIunder Basis For Adventure Series

Stirring tales of plunderers of the world, who plot behind locked doors to gain illegal access to loot from the war; who fan the flames of another world conflict, and the efforts of a crusading radio commentator to crush these activities, will form the story basis of dramatizations on the new adventure series, "The Whisper Men," to be heard each Saturday beginning at 9:30 p. m. over WOR.

"My Old Pal of Yesterday" and "Shake Hands with Mother Again" are Roy Acuff's featured solos on the 'Grand Ole Opry" show, Saturday, at 10:30 p. m. over Station WEAF. Other tuneful highspots include "Down by the Old Mill Stream" and "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," harmonized by the Old Hickory Singers; Tommy Magness, his fast fiddle and "Black Berry Blossom;" "I'm Here to Get My Baby Out of Jail," a duet by Rachel and Oswald; Mack Mcarr's mandolin solo, "Honeysuckle Rose," and the square dance closer, "Sally Goodin," played by the Smoky Mountain Boys. The Duke of Paducah (Whitey Ford) looks at the lighter aspects of reconversion, and Minnie Pearl drops by with backwoods banter from Grinder's Switch.

The problems of a young discharged veteran, and the impact of war and the subsequent peace on a young GI, who enlisted at the age of 18, will be dramatized in "Age Unknown," on the Army Service Forces "Assignment Home," over Station WABC, Saturday at 10:15 p. m. This is an encore performance of a script by Arthur Laurents, first performed last December. Mood music is conducted by Warrant Officer Edward Sadowsky.

KNIGHTS SET INITIATION

DELPHOS, Aug. 31—A formal district initiation of the Knights of Columbus will be held here Sunday, Oct. 21. A program and banquet will follow degree work. Raymond McKowen and Cyril Hickey will appoint committees to assist in the arrangements.

Fifty-two million gallons of oil are required daily by the U. S. fighting forces.
