

Wide Variety Of Films Offered Lima Screen Fans

As in the past, the Falcon gets himself into some pretty tough spots in "The Falcon in San Francisco" opening Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

With Tom Conway in the role, things start moving at a swift pace from the very beginning. The climax comes at one of the most unexpected moments and possibly is one you'll never forget. Sharing the billing is "Why Girls Leave Home"—another picture which is certain to hold the attention of everyone through.

At the Ohio theatre is the film "Pride of the Marines" which has John Garfield in the leading role of Al Schmidt, Marine. The picture tells the story of Al's manhood, his likes and dislikes, and his heroic exploits with the devils on Guadalcanal. The scenery of the film is so magnificently realistic, that it will be hard for you to realize that you're not right in the thick of it.

Gary Cooper and Merle Oberon return to the Quilna theatre in one of their best pictures, "The Cowboy and the Lady." The film tells of the fashionable girl who tries to get away from everything and goes on a blind date with her maids. It turns out screamingly funny and proves to be good film fare for all.

Joan Fontaine is right in there pitching in "Affairs of Susan" now showing at the State theatre. The picture tells of the life and loves of this small-town girl who turned out to be a very literal-minded person. The four men in her life are George Brent, Dennis O'Keefe, Don DeFore and Walter Abel.

Benny Goodman plays some of the sweetest music you'd ever want to hear in "Sweet and Low Down" the comedy-romance-musical now showing at the Lyric theatre. The film stars Linda Darnell and Lynn Bari who carry on the quiet feud.

The city of Stettin has some of Germany's most extensive shipyards, including those for U-boat construction.

Hair-Raising Mystery To Be Aired Tuesday

Beauty and the Beast do an about-turn when screen star Wendy Barrie, as Your Host Paul McGrath's guest ghostess, gets tangled up in nefarious doings behind the creaking door in "The Murder Prophet," a hair-raising "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be aired Tuesday, at 8 p. m., over WABC.

Its Kids Day at "County Fair" on Tuesday, and that big, bouncing, overgrown moppet, film favorite Billy Gilbert, will be on hand to celebrate the event when the show takes the air at 6:30 p. m. over WJZ.

It usually leads to at least mild trouble when a young man tries to pick up a beautiful blonde at a bar but when Mike (the Falcon) Waring does it it leads to three murders in the newest of the "Adventures of the Falcon," entitled "Murder Is No Bargain" to be heard over WOR Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.
