

ROUNDTOP

SAYS:
The other night I seen that Jefferson baseball team beat Medford. Jefferson wasn't suppose to have a chance at all. You ought to see the ball game they played they looked like a big league team.

The Jefferson team was hitting that ball plenty they looked good in the field too they came up with some beautiful plays. You know Medford ain't lost a game all year until this one. Medford had some old timers on there with plenty of baseball experience they played league ball them guys.

But Jefferson was hot that was all there was to it and Lehman pitched a beautiful game for Jefferson he pitched with his arm and his head too. He was cutting the corners of that plate all night long.

Medford thought they had this game in the bag that is what hurt them. I never seen either team play until that night but before the game everybody said Medford would run Jefferson out of the park.

That Jefferson team had more pepper and color than a five pound rainbow trout.

When I was out to Sauk City the other night to umpire the ball game I had all kinds of fun. I had more fun after the game than I did umpiring. Of course, Al Bauer called the balls and strikes nobody got arrested so we did alright.

Jack Voll got me out there he was general chairman of the baseball tournament. Jack was busier than a one-legged guy on a beer wagon. Jack you know just ought over. Pete Sprecher's place over there.

I took Roy Feeney along with me and Jack had a chicken supper there that was the blue ribbon. It was really the goods. Jack is a Minnesota man you know he said lets talk about the Gophers now. Did the boys ever give him the bird then.

But Pete Sprecher had the fun he bet on Jefferson everybody in town thought he was crazy. He took Voll alright I'll bet them chicken dinners were cut down for a few days after Pete collected. I bet the wings got smaller. It is a good thing we ate before the game.

Sauk City is a live little town full of good guys over there. There is no grass growing under those guys' feet they are full of pep and vitamin pills.

This is the first baseball tournament they put on I think it was put on by the Sauk City Athletic Club. It is going to be a big thing for them in time people were standing up at the first and third base line there was no seats left. This is the best thing that ever hit their town. It is a good thing for everybody the old and the young.

The Sauk City team is really the Sauk-Prairie team they are combined and they play as one team. If you don't mention Prairie Du Sac Miller the druggist there will soon let you know about it. This Miller is a go getter he has got plenty on the ball. He don't need no pills himself but he sells them he has got the pep.

The Sauk-Prairie high school band furnished music at the game that is good stuff.

I ran into Bud Mould of Nolden's Cafe I know Bud quite awhile his wife is an old fourth ward girl down here us Irish were all born here name was Gillie's daughter of Fred. I didn't get time to eat with Bud this time but I will get him next time.

I had quite a chat with Chief of Police John Poed over there you got to be a smart guy to be Irish and be a full blooded Irishman there is no half about him. He put a parking ticket on my car he said he wanted me to feel at home. He wants me to ship him out six parking meters send them c.o.d. he says.

I went in and visited Otto Lehman we have been friends for years when we get together it is all baseball everybody looks at us and thinks we are punchy; He is a Cardinal fan pretty hard to get in a conversation with him now.

I ran into Elwood "Smitty" Smith a farmer. He got talking corn, oats, and beef cattle to me I said nice going lets get into the chicken on my back porch.

I ran into William "Bill" Tank who operates two real big farms over there and how. He looks like an old Minnesota right tackle. His uncle is Peter Leykauf, big livestock shipping guy. Might get a sheep out of this. But I want it all dressed.

Dane Clerk Asks Expense Boost

Johnson Cites Police Charges

County Clerk Austin N. Johnson submitted his estimated 1946 budget to the county board finance committee Thursday night, requesting his "auto expense" fund be increased from $35 to $100 because of charges being made by county traffic police for delivering materials from the clerk's office.

About a month and a half ago, the county highway committee ordered the traffic bureau to begin charging the county clerk 10 cents per mile, one way, for delivering such items as dog tags, fishing and hunting licenses, and ballots to town clerks throughout the county. Johnson said that he had received one bill from the traffic department thus far, and that he referred it to the county audit committee for approval.

Johnson requested a total budget of $27,444 for 1946, the same as this year. He estimated a few other expenditures if the county board approves more filing space in his office.

In other requested budgets reviewed by the finance committee: ONE. The county board asked for $650 for its fees as a member of the County Boards assn. George H. Harb, 7th ward, objected to the appropriation, but made no motion to strike it from the budget. The board paid $630.82 of an appropriated $650 to the association last year.

TWO. Coroner Edward A. Fischer requested $4,800, the same as this year, despite his prediction that his work would increase with more traffic deaths and suicides as an aftermath of the war.

THREE. Register of Deeds Albert Barton requested $23,659, the same of this year. He expected an increase in the number of real estate transactions and soldiers' discharges filed in his office.

Area Man Protests Son's Induction

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Elmer Podewell, farmer of Rock county, Wis., filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in federal district court Friday asking a review of the induction of his son, Louis 25, into the army Wednesday.

The petition, filed with Judge Philip L. Sullivan, said that Rock county, Wis., filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in federal district court Friday asking a review of the induction of his son, Louis 25, into the army Wednesday.

The elder Podewell said he operated a 116-acre farm near Janesville and his son operated an 80-acre farm. He said his son had been drafted class 2-C until recently.

A hearing on the petition was set by Judge Sullivan for Sept. 12.

The main street there I thought he was going to blow the loud speaker off the car. He is in the coal business. Once in awhile he would say buy your coal now. Nice going.

They got a ball room over there in Sauk City that would knock the spots out of anything in Madison. It is a honey.

Hall the druggist over there in Sauk City is the guy who is posted on sports. Don't get in too many arguments with him on baseball and football or he will take your red flannels away from you. He is a good smart all-around guy. He is a good smart all-around guy. He is a good smart all-around guy.

I ran into Bud Mould of Nolden's Cafe I know Bud quite awhile his wife is an old fourth ward girl down here us Irish were all born here name was Gillie's daughter of Fred. I didn't get time to eat with Bud this time but I will get him next time.

Statewide Blood Bank May Be Established

Johnson Cites Police Charges

A statewide blood bank soon will be set up in Wisconsin to make dried blood plasma available for civilian emergencies in rural and urban communities, Dr. Carl N. Neupert, state health officer, announced today.

The blood will be collected by the Red Cross and processed and distributed to hospital, physicians, and health departments by the state laboratory of hygiene.

The project, approved at the recent meeting of the state board of health, has been under consideration since 1941.

Use of blood plasma may decrease maternal deaths in Wisconsin, Dr. Gunnar Gundersen, La Crosse, board president, said.

"About 40 per cent of maternal deaths are associated with hemorrhage, and 30 per cent are caused directly by shock or hemorrhage," he explained. "By having this dried plasma available when a childbirth emergency occurs, physicians in this state will be able to save the lives of many mothers."

"It will also prove a lifesaver in automobile and other accidents."

No charge for the plasma will be made to physicians, hospitals, or patients. Red Cross chapters will recruit blood donors, and Dr. W. D. Stovall will direct processing at the state laboratory.

State Traffic Deaths Double on Labor Day

Labor day traffic on Wisconsin highways showed a 63 per cent increase while traffic deaths were doubled, it was indicated today when the state highway plan survey released traffic counts as shown by its automatic counters on various state highways.

Deaths computed by The Wisconsin State Journal totaled six for the weekend, compared with three in 1944, five in 1943, eight in 1942, and 20 in the last previous ration-free holiday.

Largest increase in traffic, 81 per cent, was reported on Highway 41 south of Milwaukee. The counter there showed 21,085 cars in 1941, 6,065 in 1944, and 10,991 last Labor day.

The counter on Highways 12, 13, and 14 south of Sauk City showed an increase of 68 per cent, with 5,473 vehicles in 1945, 3,267 in 1944, and 10,131 in 1941.

Other increases included Highway 41 southeast of Menomonie Falls, 68 per cent; Highway 51 north of Merrill, 50 per cent; Highway 10 west of Waupaca, 42 per cent; Highway 13 north of Medford, 49 per cent, and Highway 53 south of Cameron, 77 per cent.

FCC to Seek Congress Aid

Wants Opinions on Radio Control

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) will ask congress to decide the extent to which big business should be allowed to control radio stations.

Congress also will be asked to adopt a yardstick for measuring the appropriate value of a station. FCC said, so that the commission will not be placed in the position of permitting sales of stations at artificially high prices.

In its opinion, FCC proposed a plan which would give all interested parties the opportunity to apply for licenses of any broadcast stations offered for sale. Under the plan the license would be given after hearings to the applicant best qualified to operate the station in the public interest, FCC said.

The commission said it was particularly interested in having congress determine to what extent holding companies, investment banking groups, large industrial empires, large manufacturing companies, and other businesses should be permitted to control radio stations.

Archbishop Stritch Among U. S. Group Seen as Cardinals

VATICAN CITY (U.P.)—Best-informed Vatican sources said Thursday that seven to eight new cardinals will be named from the United States at two forthcoming consistories.

One consistory already has been set tentatively for December. The other probably will be held next March or June.

Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York appeared certain to be named to the sacred college. As long as two months ago, he also was regarded as Pope Pius' choice for vatican secretary of state.

Other likely candidates for the red hats of the sacred college were: Archbishops Richard J. Cushing of Boston, Samuel A. Stritch of Chicago, Edward A. Mooney of Detroit, John T. McNicholas of Cincinnati, Michael J. Curley of Baltimore, and John J. Mitty of San Francisco.

Dec. 7 Investigation Seen as Big Issue of 1946 Campaign

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Congressional sources predicted today that the expected senate-house investigation of the Pearl Harbor disaster will become one of the big issues of the 1946 political campaign.

If the senate-approved Barkley resolution for a committee of six Democrats and four Republicans gets house approval the Republicans will charge that the Democrats "stacked" the committee to whitewash the administration.

Either way it will probably become a political issue. But congressional sources gave house Republicans little hope of amending the Barkley resolution.

Speaker Sam Rayburn said that the Republican proposal was "out of the question" and that house Democrats would vote for Barkley's resolution.

There are 241 Democrats and 190 Republicans in the house.
