Lyric Film Offers True Four-Leaf Entertainment

Shure, and from the sight of the fun-filled shenanigans on the screen of the Lyric theatre, beginning Monday, 'twill be a time local movie-goers will be having when they see "Irish Eyes Are Smiling." The technicolor musical starring Monty Woolley, June Haver and Dick Haymes is true four-leaf entertainment.

The picture revolves about the life of Ernest R. Ball, America's greatest composer of sentimental ballads. Rich advantages of the riotous color and brilliant times in which he lived has been taken—the razle-dazzle era of gay Broadway at its gayest—as the setting for this fast-moving romance of Irish sweethearts and the flaming melodies that have always topped America's lilt parade.

Eddie Bracken—the crooner—can be seen currently at the Ohio theatre in "Out of This World." The story concerns Bracken's sensational rise to vocal fame. It all starts when Diana Lynn discovers Eddie singing for Western Union and decides to give him a chance with her all-girl glamor band, badly in need of a lift. At this point, Veronica Lake does a bit of high-handed maneuvering to get her share of the spoils should Eddie make good. That's part of the story, you'll have to see the picture to appreciate the fun.

The San Francisco earthquake and fire were only a few of the things which were filmed and put into the picture "Flame of the Barbary Coast" currently showing at the Quilna theatre. Two pictures which will open Tuesday at the theatre are "Roxie Hart" with Ginger Rogers and Adolphe Menjou and "Texas" with William Holden, Claire Trevor and Glenn Ford.

The last chance for a while to see the picture "Uncle Harry" with George Sanders, Ella Raines and Geraldine Fitzgerald is drawing to a close at the Sigma. It's seldom that such a film ever reaches the screens of local show houses but this one did. Sharing the billing is "On Stage Everybody" with Jack Oakie, Peggy Ryan and Johnny Coy.

Robert Young is certainly having a time for himself at the State in the picture "Those Endearing Young Charms." It's not bad enough to take another fellow's girl but to play her for the proverbial sucker is too much. Of course, you'll get a big laugh out of the way Laraine Day turns the tables on him.

Trial Offered Admiral Kimmel

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—(AP)—Senator Walsh (D-Mass) disclosed today that the Navy has offered Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel, Navy commander at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese struck, a court martial if he wants it.

The revelation came in a letter from Secretary of the Navy Forrestal, part of which was made public by the senator, which checked to congress the decision on making public confidential information which a naval court of inquiry gathered about the Pearl Harbor disaster.

The Appalachian mountain chain derives its name from a tribe of Indians that once lived in northern Florida.
