Varied Movie Fare Is Offered Here Sunday

Film On Tap For Quilna

Music has variations, colors do too, in fact almost everything has variations. That goes double for movies for they have to be varied. Such is the case of the films scheduled at the local show houses this Sunday.

At the Quilna theatre is the film which the Pulitzer Prize committee named as the most outstanding novel of the year and gave to John Heisey the Pulitzer Prize. The film is matchless in emotion for it shows the true feeling of a conquered people and the treatment given them by the conquering forces-the Americans. The story of the film begins when a Major Joppolo, played by John Hodiak, enters the Sicilian village of Adano and net only wins the faith of the people but the love of a girl.

The Ohio theatre offers the technicolor triumph "Incendiary Blonde" starring Betty Hutton Arturo de Cordova and Barry "Going My Way" Fitzgerald. Miss Hutton plays a superb 1cle when she enacts the life of Texas Guman, queen of the nightclubs in the 20's. She is the hostess who always greeted her customers with an insult and no matter how bad the insult, the people whom she termed as "suckers" always came back for more.

The 10mantic, colorful life of one of America's greatest figures makes its appearance on the screen of the Sigma theatre again "The Great John L" as a record of the life of America's foremost prizefighter, John L. Sullivan but it is more than a hietory of the "Boston Strong Boy" -it is a gay, exciting film picturization of the time in which he lived. The role of John L 13 enacted by Greg McClure, new discovery who makes his debut in a leading part

Many strive to reach a goal which seems almost unattainable when first begun. Bette Davis plays the part of a school teacher among Welsh coal miners who sees in one boy the reason why she must proceed with her plans to begin a school. The film is called "The Corn Is Green" and features a new player John Dall who looks as if he'll go places in the cinema world. Now showing at the State theatre, the film shares the billing with "Beauti-

News of New York's Greenwich Village has spread all over the world until now it has become a landmark for all countries. Folks from far and wide who want to see the city of New York never want to miss this small place that is simply grainmed with artists The film, "Greenstarring Don Village" Ameche, Vivian Blaine, William Bendix and Carmen Miranda." Monday at the Lyric theatre.

Jesse James is a name familiar to all, especially to the youngsters who have pictured him as a rough and tumble westerner who never let anything stand in his way of getting what he wanted. Now they can get the true "lowdown" on this man when they see "The Days of Jesse James" now showing at the Allen theatre.

'Should Career Girls Retain War Jobs?' Air Debate Theme

Should the career girl or the war plant worker give up her job now that the men are coming home from war? That controversial topic will be discussed by Ilka Chase and Paul McGrath on "Ilka Chase Observes" at 12:15 p. m. Sunday over WOR. Always on the watch for timely topics, Miss Chase has made her own private survey on the "will-she, won't-she go on working" problem.
