Comedy Reigns Supreme In Film Showing At Quilna

Comedy has been crowned king and will reign supreme at the Quilna theatre Friday when the film "Over 21" opens with stars frene Dunne, Alexander Knox and Charles Coburn.

Whenever the name of Irene Dunne and Charles Coburn are attached to a motion picture labelled comedy, audiences have learned from past performances that they are due for not only a delightful experience of charm and chuckles, but great, hig, guffaws. Now Alexander Knox joins them and is said to make it a triumphant triumvirate in this picture.

At the Ohio theatre is the picture which has kept people in a turmoil in anticipating its forthcoming. That film is "The Story of GI Joe" which stars Burgess Meredith as the late beloved columnist, Ernie Pyle. The story of the picture develops from the actions of the infantryman-the fellow that Ernie used to tell about in his columns.

If you've never had the privilege of being in on some of the stunts pulled by "Truth or Consequences," the program which is aired every Friday with Ralph Edwards as master of ceremonies, then you've missed something. To get an idea of how things are done on that program, you'll want to see "Radio Stars on Parade" now showing at the Sigma theatre. Sharing the bill is "Dangerous Infruder." Returning to play once again for those people who did not have the chance before to see the films are "Northwest Mounted Police" and "This Gun for Hire." Both pictures will open Saturday.

When a couple goes away for its honeymoon and has a guest tagging along behind, that's worth making a movie of. That's exactly what has been done, too. Now showing at the State theatre is "Having a Wonderful Crime" with George Murphy, Pat O'Brien and Carole Landis. The co-feature is "A Medal for Benny" with Arturo de Cordova and Dorothy Lamour.

Jack Benny has been keeping both radio and screen audiences entertained for many years. Now, he has made a picture which seems to top them all. In the film, "Meanest Man in the World," you'll actually see Benny at his best. The picture will open Saturday at the Lyric theatre.
