At the Sigma theatres are two films which received acclaim by both movie critics and audiences. The pictures are "Northwest Mounted Police" with Gary Cooper, Madeleine Carroll, Preston Foster, Robert

Preston, Paulette Goddard and is many others in the supporting

The film is in technicolor and tells of the few brave Mounties and one Texas Ranger who cornered one of the most dangerous criminals ever known and put down an Indian uprising. Sharing the billing is another good 're-turned feature, "This Gun for Hire", with Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake.

Ernie Pyle, everybody's column-1st, has been brought back to life in the person of Burgess Meredith in the film now showing at the Ohio theatre, "The Story of GI Joe." Showing all the excitement which occurred during the African, Sicilian and Italian campaigns, the film also portrays the more human side, of which columnist Pyle wrote so much.

Alexander Knox has joined the twosome which kept audiences in such hilarious fits in "Together Again." These two, if you don't already know, are Irene Dunne and Charles Coburn and their latest film is "Over 21" now showing at the Quilna theatre. The cofeature to this outstanding picture is "Rhythm Round-up."

Greer Garson and Gregory Peck, the two stars who have the leading roles in "Valley of Decision" opening at the States theatre Sunday, come forth with what possibly is the greatest portrayal of characters in their whole screen careers. The film is co-featured with "Three Is a Family."
