

ROUNDDY

SAYS:

Well it's football weather and how.

I think Johnny Lundquist of Minnesota will be the star back of the season.

They are scalping Cub tickets for the Card games in Chicago in our city at $8.80. That is two bucks over the level.

Did you ever see a ball team that kicked the pennant over the back fence like Washington?

Detroit darn near said to them take it brother it's yours.

The Washington team blames Clark Griffiths the club owner for it all. Playing schedule as he fixed it so he could get football into the park week before season ends.

That sounded like common sense to all baseball people. But the way Washington has passed up games and played them in last two weeks is all their fault. They played bad ball and their pitchers were throwing home run balls right and left.

This Sunday the Jefferson Merchants are going to play the Watertown Hiawathas at Jefferson game starts at 2:30. Watertown don't think Jefferson is the champion. This is good way to find out.

They are going to play one game at Jefferson and one at Watertown if it gets to be a game each they will play the final game at the Figenen's Park in Watertown, Sunday, October 7th.

They wanted me to umpire. That is not now I am going to stay home and get the Cubs and Pitts-burgh game. Then a week from Sunday I got to see the Bears and Packers.

I met Mary Wellintin when I was at the All-Star game in Chicago there is a good sport and-ho-w.

Wally Hoffman drove me in to Milwaukee the other day Ed Blank of Jefferson went out duck hunting the other day he said he was going to get some for my back porch.

That back yard we got is beautiful we rent off from Frank Byrne. The flowers there and the shrubs are beautiful. It is small but I don't think there is anything more beautiful in the city.

The Moose are going over to Portage this Sunday night to a banquet. Katherine Dunn of Portage she supervises the meal she says the boys will have to take their belts off when they get through eating.

I met Mr. Bennett he is from Mazomanie, Wisconsin, he was telling me how he was up north hunting deer last year and couldn't see any. Then when he got within a mile of Mazomanie three deer ran across the road and he knocked the bark down with a shot. He tells it serious too. Write your own ticket.

Here's the people that sent me cards on my birthday which was September 18th: The Sveums, Hardy Endres, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. DeMath, Mrs. William Usher, Duke Wellintin, Marion, Jerry and Brian Burke, Ted Boehner, Mrs. E. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Donner and family, Duke of Lakeview, Mrs. Jessie F. Gill, Alice Olday, Mrs. Daggett, Florence and Charley, Kay Ann Hegstad, Michael Sacks, An Ad-visor of your column, Mrs. Mary Miller, The Cummings, The Dommerhsausens, Leora, Saker, Judge Brahm, Paul Jack, Grace Riggie, Katherine Dunn, Madison Elks Lodge No. 410, Art and Joe, George "Shorty" St. Peter, The Gals on the proffdesk, Dorothy Davis, The Blanks, Ernest Johnson, Shirley Henderson, Parker, Dick and Frances Daggett, Roy Feeney, Gertrude Arndt, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, and Dorothy Diment.

Roy Feeney sent me three pairs of sex I thought the card was good it said "Keep on socking them." I got a beautiful shirt from Parker, Frances, and Dick Daggett. I want to thank everybody.

I met Mary Wellintin when I was at the All-Star game in Chicago there is a good sport and-ho-w.

Wally Hoffman drove me in to Milwaukee the other day Ed Blank of Jefferson went out duck hunting the other day he said he was going to get some for my back porch.

Looks like the ducks will have to fly these themselves I didn't see any.
