

Tested Hara - Kiri Dagger Has Role In Film

Two Pictures Returning For Engagements

Summer has gone and has literally left people out in the cold—that is, as far as weather conditions are concerned. But one thing is certain, the movie production center, better known as Hollywood still is producing the best, and Lima is getting a good deal of it.

The hara-kiri ceremonial dagger which is used in one of the most dramatic scenes in "Blood On The Sun," Jimmy Cagney's starring picture now running at the Ohio theatre, is the real thing. Just prior to the time the scene was filmed, a marine friend of the actor's, then in the South Pacific, sent him a Japanese dagger which a Nip officer had used on himself rather than surrender to the relentless Leathernecks.

Monday will bring two pictures which were requested to return. They are "Song of the Islands" with Betty Grable and "Black Swan" with Tyrone Power—both pictures are in technicolor, and will be showing at the Quilna theatre.

Joan Davis is at her usual best in the film, "George White's Scandals," now showing at the Sigma theatre. In order to revive the old days, Joan goes about assembling a group of choicest. Everything starts to happen at once but soon get straightened out.

Remember the guy who made all the girls sigh when he appeared in "Two Girls and a Sailor," and "Thirty Second Over Tokyo," well, he's back again. Yes, Van Johnson is coming to the State theatre for a return engagement to play in "Thrill of a Romance" with Esther Williams.

Kay Kyser certainly has the evil eye in "Swing Fever," the picture showing at the Lyric theatre. Stellar hosts are shared by Marilyn Maxwell and William Gargan who help to turn out a top notch piece of entertainment. Opening Monday is "Rough and Ready" with Chester Morris and Victor McLaglen and "Oregon Trail."

Fred MacMurray is the center of attraction in "Forest Fire" the film which now is showing at the Allen theatre. Sharing the bill is "Law of the Saddle" with Bob Livingston.

"COMING SOON"—Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, Vivian Blaine and Dick Haymes, make up the romantic doubles in "State Fair," the new Technicolor musical. Boasting a score of new song hits Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, of "Oklahoma" and "Carousel" fame, "State Fair" opens soon at the Quilna theatre. Also featured in the outstanding cast of the film are Charles Winniger and Fay Bainter.

"WEDDING BELLS"—Carleton Young, Spring Byington and Esther Williams in a scene from the technicolor musical "Thrill of a Romance," co-starring Van Johnson, opening Sunday at the State theatre.

will return to the air-waves after a year's leave to take over the half-hour airtime following the Bergen-McCarthy broadcast. If Allen rubs Bergen's splinter the wrong way, he'll hear Charlie threatening to "mow him down." Of course, McCarthy is mindful of the fact that he will have to land his blows first. The "Mighty Allen" has the advantage of the "last word" in any case.

George S. Kaufman, famous playwright, director and satirist, will visit the "Opinion Requested" program at 7 p. m. Sunday over WOR to join Charlotte Adams of the Associated Press, and the noted economist, Leo Cherne, in answering questions currently troubling servicemen and their families.

The first two General Motors Symphony of the Air concerts to be conducted by Alfred Wallenstein, director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, will be heard at 4 p. m. Sunday over WEP. Wallenstein's second guest-conducting engagement will be on the following Sunday.

"The Heartbeats of Death," the story of a scientist who has discovered a serum that cures every sickness, is the title of the newest adventure of "The Shadow" heard at 5 p. m. Sunday over WOR.

Uncle Louis sees a chance to capitalize on Baby Snooks' absences and rents 1st room to Kay Kyser on "The Baby Snooks Show," to be heard at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over WABC.

Kay, touched with Daddy Higgins' despair over the disappearance of his precocious but lovable brat, joins the hunt for Snooks by advertising in the papers, offering $100 for information leading to her return.

Tag Sale Nets $581 For DAV

A total of $581.01 was taken in during the recent Forget-Me-Not sale sponsored by the Lima chapter of the Disabled American Veterans, according to Russell W. Grainger, general chairman.

Profits from the sale, the first of its kind since 1937, will be used for rehabilitation and for helping veterans in other ways.

Grainger announced Saturday that the organization wishes to thank the salesgirls, of which there were approximately 35, for contributing their services in selling the flowers on Lima's streets, and the contributors who bought forget-me-nots, thus making the campaign successful.

Richard Notter is post commander.
