New Personality Shows In Ohio's "You Came Along"

Lima's Ohio theatre audiences will get a glimpse of a brand new personality in the film "You Came Along" the picture coming to the Ohio theatre Friday. Besides bringing Robert Cummings back to the screen after an absence of over two years during which time he served as an Army flight instructor, it introduces Lizabeth Scott. It is more than just a war story, it's a tender love story, poignant, but never mawkish. It concerns three furloughed fliers, Cummings, Don DeFore and Charles Drake, who meet Scott when the Treasury department commissions her to accompany them on a bond tour. The meeting precipitates a romance between Cummings and the lady and from there on the story really develops. With Peggy Ann Garner in her first starring role. "Junior Miss," opens at the Quilna theatre Fri-The brilliantly talented youngster who scored an outstanding triumph in "A Tree Grows in Brooklny" as Francie, is seen in an entirely new type of role for her. Sharing the billing is "Caribbean Mystery" with James Dunn, Sheila Ryan and Edward Ryan.

As exciting as a shot in the night is the new mystery thriller. "The Hidden Eye" with Edward Arnold, Frances Rafferty, Paul Langton and Ray Collins in the leading roles and now showing at the Sigma theatre. It relates, in a tense manner, the new adventures of the famous blind detective, Duncan Maclain and his brave dog. Friday. It's the story of a jasmine-scented trail of murders solved by Maclain after a series of desperate struggles against a power-crazed, crafty, four-time
