Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith, Charles Coburn, Julie Bishop and many others. Depicting the rise of New York's own East Side youngster from dire poverty thru lean years of song plugging in Tin Pan Alley to his final emergence as one of America's most famous composers, the picture keeps equal pace with Gershwin's dramatic life story and his ever-expanding list of hit musical numbers. Friday will bring Bud Abbott and Lou Costello in "Naughty Nineties."

A technicolor treat is in store for all those who like plenty of action, music and romance and like it in color sequences. This will be found at the Quilna theatre in the shape of "State Fair" with Dana Andrews, Jeanne Craine, Dick Haymes and Virginia Blaine. Of course you'll never believe that a fair ground could be kept so immaculate-but. that's the movies.

There are only a couple of more days left for you to see "Born for Trouble" the film which stars Van Johnson and currently playing at the Sigma theatre. The film is a return picture and is sharing the with another returned movie, "It All Came True" with Humphrey Bogart and Ann Sheri-

Marx-Shore Friendship Arouses Hollywood Talk

The Hollywood grapevine shimmers with speculation at news that Groucho Marx is calling on Dinah Shore again on "Dinah Shore's Open House," at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over station WEAF.

With Grouch parking on Dinah's doorstep for the second time in hardly more than a month, people will say they're in love. Dinah has to give with plenty of southern sweet-talk and songs before she can prove that Groucho isn't really the steady-fella that people suspect. Walter Reuther, vice president general manager of the Automo-
