Highlighted with many things which go to make up fairs, "State Fair" opened Thursday at the Quilna theatre, and as in other places was welcomed with the hand of approval worthy of it.

Ringing with a score of wonderful new songs, the picture is thrilling with the richly human and radiantly joyous adventures of the east which is headed by Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, Dick Haymes and Vivian Blaine. The film is set :against the gloriously gay background of one of America's bestloved institutions and ever since its production has been acclaimed by audiences as well as critics as one of the best.

Bud Abbott and Lou Costello worked their trusty magic of laugh production on old admirers as well as new in the making of "Naughty Nineties" the film which is currently showing at the Ohio theatre. This comedy drama of old-time Mississippi river steamboat days presents the fam-can happen in the movies and again it has in "Born for Trouble" the picture which stars Van Johnson and Faye Emerson and is currently showing at the Sigma the-

Here to play a one-day stand will be the films "Cowboy Commandos" and "Gang's All Here.'

role of the famous detective in the "Chinese Cat" the picture
