

New Romantic Comedy Due At Sigma On Wednesday

"Shady Lady," the pretentious new romantic comedy coming to the Sigma theatre Wednesday has Charles Coburn co-starred with Ginny Simms and Robert Paige.

The story has been expertly fashioned to exhibit the talents of its three stars. An impressive supporting cast also is one of the top features. Paige is seen as a young prosecuting attorney in Chicago. In his campaign to jail a notorious nite club racketeer he falls in love with a popular cabaret entertainer, which is, naturally, Ginny Simms.

Abbott and Costello are not out of their old tricks, they have a few new ones for their current picture, "Naughty Nineties," now showing at the Ohio theatre. When the two get in with a bunch of professional gamblers they are involved in an affair pretty near unextricable.

If you've ever attended a fair you have a pretty good idea what the exhibitions amount to. Well, they're on a much greater scale at a "State Fair" as you will see in the film of the same name currently showing at the Quilna theatre. The film has for its stars, Jeanne Craine, Dana Andrews, Dick Haymes and Vivian Blaine.

Have you ever seen a calm cowboy? Maybe the question should be, have you ever seen a cowboy? Well, anyhow, you'll not want to miss "Along Came Jones" with Gary Cooper and Loretta Young. Olsen and Johnson really create a sensation in "Zombies on Broadway" the film now showing at the Lyric theatre. When they go to Africa to bring a zombie back with them, and one comes back as a zombie, the biggest, sensational laugh riot of the year is created. "Reap the Wild Wind" with Ray Milland, Paulette Goddard and John Wayne will open Wednesday in all its greatness at the Allen theatre. Sharing the billing will be "Silver Stallion."

OUR BOARING HOUSE WITH MAJOR BOOLE

Two days and he's still missing without him it's so quiet that the ashes falling of a man's cigarette make echoes!

The old annals must have cracked when you started taking Sunday swings at his excelsior pompadour!

Among other advantages while you don't have to duck a stiffarm to score on the hash!

I miss the lights, usually it's as noisy as a troupe of skeletons practicing a tumbling act on a tin roof!

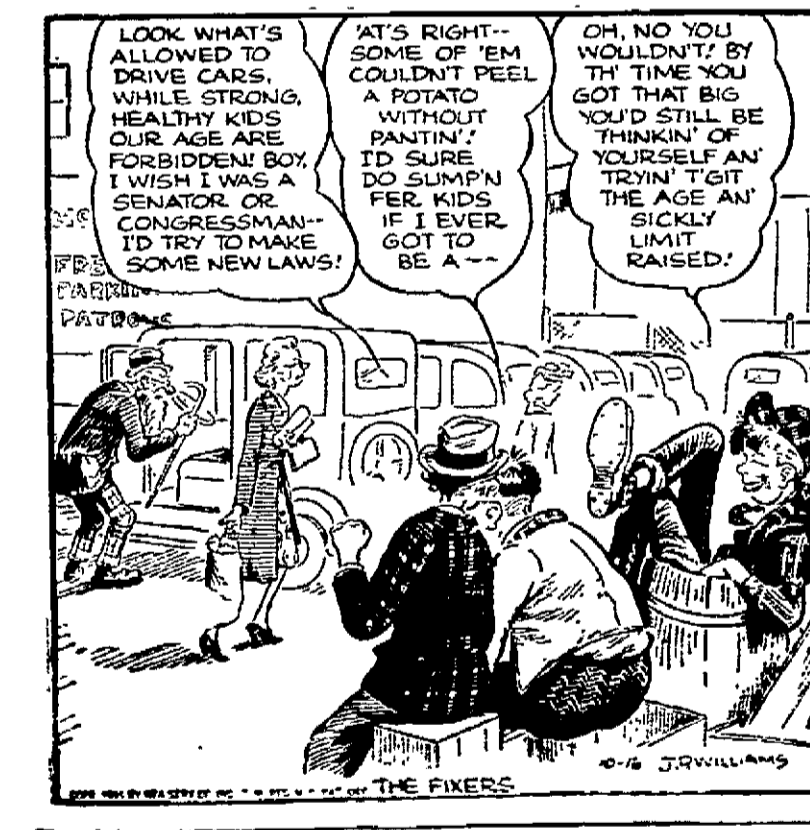

OUT OUR WAY

LOOK WHAT'S ALLOWED TO DRIVE CARS WHILE STRONG, HEALTHY KIDS OUR AGE ARE FORBIDDEN TO DRIVE! I WISH I WAS A SENATOR OR CONGRESSMAN-- I'D TRY TO MAKE SOME NEW LAWS!

AT'S RIGHT-- SOME OF 'EM COULDN'T PEEL A POTATO WITHOUT PAINTING IT! I'D SURE DO SUMP'N FER KIDS IF I EVER GOT TO BE A--

OH, NO YOU WOULDN'T! BY THE TIME YOU GOT THAT BIG YOU'D STILL BE THINKING OF YOURSELF AN' THE AGE AN' SICKLY LIMIT RAISED!

DELPHOS LEGION PICNICS
DELPHOS, Oct. 16 -- The annual Commemorative Post, American Legion, stag picnic was held Sunday afternoon and evening at lodge hall. Guests from Lima, Van Wert, Celina and St. Marys were present for a banquet served by the local men. More than 1,000,000 soldiers have received their Army training in Texas since Pearl Harbor.

Surprise Climax Is Feature Of "This Is My Best" Show

Donald Meek, stage and screen favorite, stars in Jillian Street's O'Henry Award winner, "Mr. Bisbee's Princess" on "This Is My Best" at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

The plot concerns a small midwestern jeweler who is pushed around by family and neighbors alike until his eventual return from a New York convention. On the train, he removes a cinder from the eye of an internationally famous princess, and starts a flood of rumors from the local gossips, which brings the story to a surprise climax.

Judy's father finds that Cupid's aim is often wide of its mark, when he becomes "Casanova Foster" on "A Date With Judy," at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF, Tuesday. As a favor to a friend, he orders flowers for a certain "Sweetiepie," and this leads to a highly embarrassing set of comic complications.

Radio headlines Ann Shepard and Larry Haines embark on an eerie honeymoon when they appear behind Paul McGrath's creaking door in dual-guest roles in "Full Death Do Us Part," a gasp-provoking "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

Alan Young, the terrific tactician, makes a breath-taking end-run around dazed Hubert Updike III, to out-guess his famous rival in a race for their common goal, the beautiful Betty Dittendefor on the "Alan Young Show" at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over WJZ.
