

"Rhapsody In Blue" Opens At Ohio Ahead Of Schedule

A musical treat of magnificent proportions is the newest and most distinguished biographical film to date, "Rhapsody In Blue," the story of George Gershwin, which will open at the Ohio theatre, Thursday, a day ahead of schedule.

With a glittering cast of top-rank performers headed by Robert Alda, newly-created star who makes his screen debut as the immortal composer, and Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith and Charles Coburn in other important roles, the film is an exciting and thoroughly rewarding blend of musical and cinematic achievement, certain to be warmly welcomed by music and drama lovers alike.

The film was certainly appreciated at its premiere at the Ohio theatre last Thursday for the turn-out of Lima folks at that late hour was tremendous. Young and old alike were on hand to view this magnificent show.

"State Fair," the warmly told story of an Iowa family who eagerly await the fair that will bring all kinds of adventures into their lives. The film, which stars Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, Dick Haymes and Vivian Blaine, has made musicals what everyone has been looking for. The music playing the acting is particularly hard to forget because of the way they are done.

Ginny Simms, John Payne and Charles Coburn are the title roles in "Shady Lady," the film which is currently opening at the Sigma theatre. The film tells about a fabulous gambler and a young district attorney who put their heads together to catch some of the craftiest criminals known. Sharing the billing is "Brighton Strangler," with John Loder.

A psychological movie will open at the State theatre Thursday entitled "Uncle Harry." The film which has George Sanders, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Ella Raines, tells the story about a brother who is torn between love for his sister and love for another girl, and the consequences that come out of this affair.

Dick Powell plays the role of a private detective who takes it upon himself to solve a murder and winds up in some pretty ticklish spots in "Murder, My Sweet," the film which is currently showing at the Lyric theatre.

Returned for the convenience of those who wanted to see the picture but just never got around to going to the theatre is the film "Reap the Wild Wind," now playing at the Allen theatre. The film stars Ray Milland, John Wayne and Paulette Goddard, who turn out a superb performance.

Gene Kelly With "The Voice" On First New York Program

Gene Kelly will be Frank Sinatra's guest star on the first broadcast of the "Songs by Frank Sinatra" series from New York at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WABC.

Kelly and Sinatra played together in the movie "Anchors Aweigh," and on the broadcast they will reenact scenes from the picture.

Pam and Jerry North have the old spook routine for the plot of "The Case of the Overnight Guest," one of their zaniest crime chasers in "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" to be heard at 8 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

An invitation to occupy a friend's rustic lodge on a remote and storm-swept cape leads the Norths into dark and mysterious escapades.

During their first night, Jerry and Pam encounter a caretaker who has been buried for seven years, ghosts that pop up at windows, hidden treasure that won't stay hidden, two murders, a haunted graveyard, a phony sheriff and all the rest of the trappings that go to make up a first-rate scare yarn.

Eddie Cantor has the last laugh on Harry von Zell when the latter discovers he's not the biggie he thinks he is on "The Eddie Cantor Show" heard at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

Lew Lahn, the comedian noted for his zany antics on the screen, will add fun to the program "Ralph Slater, Hypnotist," when he appears at 10 p. m. Wednesday over WOR as guest of the mesmeric analyst.

Jan Clayton, beautiful singing star of New York's musical hit, "Carousel," will be the guest armchair detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Other Man" at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over WABC.

The master detective throws a fast switch and springs a surprise in his dramatization of a mystery story in which a man finds himself betrayed.
