George Sanders Has Lead In "Uncle Harry" Film At State

"Uncie. Harry," a suspense murder drama involving an unusual emetional triangle, is making its first appearance at the State theatre Thursday.

George Sanders appears as a textile designer in the mythical small New Hampshire town of Corinth. Geraldine Fitzgerald is his possessive, self-centered and attractive sister and Ella Raines his intended These, three distinguished screen stars walk off with the You've all waited to see this film, now it has arrived in Lima for the first time after its premiere here not so long ago. It is "Rhapsody in Blue," starring Robert Alda, Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith and Charles Coburn in the top ranking roles with many persons who played an active part in the real George Gershwin's life taking parts. The film is filled with Gershwin melodies plus many widely-known actors.

laurels in this highly suspenseful

Good news! The film at the Quilna theatre which has been drawing audiences since its opening at the theatre a day earlier than the schedule called for will be held over one day in order that everyone who has been counting on seeing it will get to do so before it leaves town. The picture stars Dan's Andrews, Jeanne Craine, Dick Haymes and Vivian Blaine.

"When a piece of falling debris changes an ordinary actor into a murderer, that is surprising. But, what is more surprising is the end of the film "Brighton Strangler," the picture now showing at the Sigma theatre in which the strange phenomenon takes place. Sharing the billing is "Shady Lady" with Ginny Simms, Robert Paige and Charles Coburn. Mystery is the key-word for the film which is currently showing at the Lyric theatre. The picture, which is entitled "Murder, My Sweet" stars Dick Powell, Claire Trevor and Anne Shirley and is practically guaranteed to send cold shivers up and down your spine. Sharing the bill is "Shadows of Death" another movie with plenty of suspense. Two old favorites will return to

Carson To Dinah Shore Air-Show

The bubble of Jack Carson's conceit goes pop when the hrawny. brainy, bragging screen star visits Dinah Shore on Dinah Shore's Open House" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over WEAF.

Dinah's southern hospitality is strained to the bursting point at Jack's superabundant confidence in himself when out of politeness she says "How nice of you to come" and he comes back with "You're only saying that because it's prompting allowed. A number of true." Dinah forgets that she's a gracious hostess and tells him especially planned stunts are exwhat she really thinks. A novel participation program in which harried husbands give their views of domestic matters will make its debut on WOR at p. m. Thursday, and will be heard weekly thereafter under the title of "Raising A Husband." The men will attempt to answer the kind of questions usually directed at women-and with no
