

"Winged Victory," On Lyric Screen, Is Outstanding Film

Folks, it's here! That film that drew so many hearts to its very door, "Winged Victory," will be showing currently at the Lyric theatre for a few days.

It's one of the most outstanding films ever made about the global conflict of the past, better known as World War II. It's the heart warming story of the fellows who flew those gigantic metal birds, known as air planes in what historians call, the worst war known to mankind.

If you like the Navy, then you'll like "Anchors Aweigh" for it is one of the funniest, most hilarious films to reach the screen of any theatre in the proverbial "month of Sundays." The picture is currently showing at the Ohio theatre.

You want to learn some espionage tricks, eh? Well, there are plenty of them shown in "The House on 92nd Street" but tough luck, the Federal Bureau of Investigation knows all about them. Here's one film which guarantees you all the mystery and suspense you can stand with plenty to add. Sharing the billing is "Swinging On A Rainbow!"

More heroic stories may be in the offing, but this is perhaps one of the most heroic to date. "The First Yank in Tokyo" with Tom Neal, tells of a fellow who underwent plastic surgery which could never be done over, to save the life of a countryman whom he figured of more value than himself. It's terrific and a story you're not apt to forget.

Eddie Bracken is singing like Bing Crosby—anyhow, it looks like it in "Out of This World" the film now showing at the State theatre and starring Bracken with Diana Lynn and Veronica Lake. Co-featured is "On Stage Everybody."

Did you ever see a dead man walking? Perhaps not, but you'll see plenty of them, supposedly doing this, in "Revenge Of The Zombies," opening at the Allen theatre Wednesday. Sharing the bill is "Wild Horse Rustlers."

Two Homes Looted During Week-End

Two cases of housebreaking were reported to Lima police over the weekend.

Richard O. Yeakum of 528 Ontario, complained that burglars, took a wrist watch, three boxes of shotgun shells, three packs of cigarettes and $1 in Indian head pennies from his residence. Police said entrance was gained by cutting a rear screen door and forcing a window with a sickle.

Guy Workman of 794 S. Metcalf-st, reported a rear window glass was smashed and his house ransacked. He said a flag-night, valued at $150 was taken.

Senators Divided On Draft Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29—(AP)—Supporters outnumber opponents but a decisive segment of the senate has not made up its mind about compulsory military training in peacetime, an Associated Press poll showed today.

Eighty-four senators were asked the question: "Do you favor compelling physically-able young men to take military, or other war, training?" Twenty-five, including 18 Democrats and seven Republicans, said they are for some form of compulsory training. Their ideas of form differ widely.

Nineteen, including eight Democrats, 10 Republicans and a Progressive, are against compelling young men to take training. Many of them suggested alternatives.

Forty senators, including 24 Democrats and 16 Republicans, said they haven't yet made up their minds. Twelve senators were out of Washington and could not be reached.

'Joanie' Campaigns For Mayor On Monday's Comedy Program

Election time rolls around in Swanville and finds Joan Davis setting her bonnet for the mayoralty on "The Joan Davis Show" heard at 8:30 p. m. over WABC.

When both political parties are unanimous in wanting banker Weatherby for mayor, Joanie goes all-out with some fancy electioneering. The "Queen of Comedy" cunningly devises a plot to split the votes and puts Harry von Zell up as "front" for her third party, but the best-laid plans of mice and politicians tend toward complications, Joanie finds out to her dismay.

"The Affairs of Susan" the sprightly romantic comedy, will be the Radio theatre bill for 9 p. m. Monday over WABC. Joan Fontaine, George Brent and Don DeFore recreate their original screen roles in the full-hour presentation.

Susan Dorell, played by Joan, has four suitors. There is her ex-husband and stage producer, Roger Berton, played by Brent, Mike Ward, enacted by DeFore, a good natured lumberman who catches her on the rebound from her Reno divorce, a serious young writer and a rather stodgy businessman, the latter of which is determined to marry her. What happens from there is in your ticket to a good program.

Bob Hawk sends duffel bags filled with free cigarettes to Naval hospitals at Jacksonville, Fla. and Memphis, Tenn., on "Thanks to the Yanks" to be heard at 7:30 p. m. Monday over WABC.

The renowned scientist and Nobel Prize winner, Dr. Carl T. Compton, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will be the second speaker on the WOR series on the inside workings of the Office of Scientific Research and Development on the program "Science in War and Peace" to be heard at 7:15 p. m. Monday.
