

Horrors Of European War Revealed In Sigma Feature

Now it can be told—the story from beginning to end of the horrors of the war in Europe. In "True Glory" opening at the Sigma theatre Wednesday, folks will find the surprise of their lives.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's own account of the war which the American, British and Russian forces fought to the end, fought it to end all global conflicts. The story is told with no holds barred and is one of the most revealing pictures ever to be released.

If everyone likes technicolor features like this reviewer does, it's a safe bet that everyone will like the picture currently showing at the Ohio theatre under the title of "Anchors Aweigh" with Frank Sinatra, Gene Kelly and Kathryn Grayson for it's a dream of a film. Nothing in it is of farv tale nature, except one sequence, of course, but the rest is just as down to earth as you'd like it.

Espionage is a cruel word, but it's a word that has been used all thru the war. It's a tricky business to track down something with no leads or clues but that's what the Federal Bureau of Investigation does. This you will note in "The House on 92nd Street" currently playing at the Quilna theatre and starring William Eythe, Signe Hasso, and Lloyd Nolan; also "Swingin' On A Rainbow."

Donald Barry plays the innocent yet tough hombre in "Chicago Kid" currently playing at the Lyric theatre. The picture is co-featured with "Winged Victory" with Dana Andrews.

Zombies, zombies everywhere, but not for very long! That, good friends, is a parody on the poem, "The Ancient Mariner." It's supposed to connect with the film "Revenge of the Zombies" but this reviewer hasn't decided just where. The picture, however, will open at the Allen theatre Wednesday, then is your chance to learn.

The United States has about 200 tribes of Indians, and they speak 55 distinct languages.

W. F. English, vice president of Trans-Canada Air Lines, recently reported that Canadian air-mile costs had increased only 4 per cent since 1938, while similar costs of U. S. airlines had risen 48 per cent.

Joyce And Joslyn Featured In Radio Comedy Tuesday

Film stars Brenda Joyce and Allyn Joslyn are co-featured, when "This Is My Best" presents a radio adaptation of Frank L. Smith's amusing story, "Venus Didn't Diet," in the broadcast to be heard at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

Screen star Boris Karloff goes on a homicidal rampage when he makes his second appearance behind Your Host Paul McGrath's creaking door, as guest ghoul in "The Man Who Couldn't Die," a blood-letting "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be aired at 9 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

Alan (Rembrandt) Young's sign-painting business begins to pay off when he gets the last laugh at a Halloween party during "The Alan Young Show" at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over WJZ.

When the poor man's Picasso leaves a sign on Mr. Dittendef's front porch, the results prove most disastrous for Alan's future father-in-law. So just when the young comic thinks he is in good with Betty's father, the fireworks begin and another laugh fest begins.

"A Date With Judy" which is heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesdays, proves to be more hilarious than usual this Tuesday as Judy and her brother, Randolph, cut some outstanding capers and keep their parents in a turmoil.

Bob Hope, who is heard at 10 p. m. Tuesday over WEA-F keeps the crowds roaring with those jokes which have so unmistakably made him the joke master of joke masters.
